POLAR STORMS DEFEAT DIRIGIBLE ITALIA

HAGEN BRITISH GOLF KING AGAIN

Wins Title For the Third Time With Two Strokes To Spare Over Sarazen

"The Haig" Shoots Two Rounds of 72 To-day and Finishes With Total Score of 292; Archie Compston, Main Threat of England to Keep Title at Home, Finishes Third With 295; Jurado, Little Argentina, Cracks at Eighteenth Hole in Morning Round and Finishes With 301

Sandwich, Eng., May 11.—Walter Hagen of the United States won the British open golf championship to-day with a score of 292 for seventy-two holes. Hagen scored a pair of 72s in the final rounds to win. It was Hagen's third victory in the British title event. He won in 1922 and 1924.

Gene Sarazen of the United States was runner-up, with a score of 294, and Archie Compston of England, who defeated Hagen in a challenge match before the open, 18 up and 17 to play, followed with 295.

Hagen played great golf in the final thirty-six holes, coming out of trouble with deadly accuracy and putting well on the hole, although he missed a short putt at the seventeenth hole. Hagen has won the open championship of the United States twice and the American P.G.A. championship five times, the last four years in succession. His first British championship was at Sandwich, where he won to-day.

JURADO SLIPS
Percy Alliss, who is a British golfer, but is professional at a Berlin club, finished fourth with a score of 298. Jim Barnes and Jose Jurado, Buenos Ayres, tied for fifth place with scores of 301. Jurado took an 80 on the final round.

As was freely predicted yesterday, Jurado, owing to the sparseness of his physique, was unable to stand the terrific strain. He weighed only 126 pounds, and stands but five feet four inches in height. His first sign of cracking came at the eighteenth hole in the first round to-day, when he took six on a par four hole.

Bill Mehlhorn followed at 303. William Davis took 304, and A. W. Whitting and Fred Taggart were tied with scores of 305.

Sandwich, Eng., May 11.—Turning in a score of 72 for the morning round to-day, Walter Hagen had a lead of one stroke on Jose Jurado of the Argentine at the end of fifty-four holes of the British open golf championship. Hagen's score was 220 and Jurado's 221. Jurado was three strokes ahead of the field with 145 when the players teed off, while Hagen had 148. Jurado, however, failed to do better than 76 this morning.

The closest to Hagen and Jurado among the early finishers was Stewart Burns, Scottish pro, who had a 75 for a 224, four strokes behind Hagen. Percy Alliss, British, got 75 for the eighteen holes, making his total 226. James Braid, Great Britain, playing with Jurado, got an 80, giving him 230 for fifty-four holes.

Wild Bill Mehlhorn, took 76, giving him 225. Abe Mitchell got an 82, giving him 235.

LIVES SAVED BY BOY OF ELEVEN

Lad in Vancouver Turns Off Gas; Father and Brother Now in Hospital

Vancouver, May 11.—Presence of mind on the part of the eleven-year-old son of Bert Rock, together with prompt action by Miss Kate McGregor, manageress of rooms at 1261 Granville Street, Vancouver, saved the lives of at least two persons early to-day.

At 2 o'clock the youngster was awakened by his father asking in an almost incoherent manner for a glass of water, and found that the room in which the family, consisting of Rock and his four children, were sleeping, was full of gas.

The boy ran to the meter and turned off the gas, then roused occupants of the building as he rushed down to the office.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL
Miss McGregor went to the Rock's room and opened the windows, after which she notified the police, who arrived to find the man and his three-year-old son unconscious.

They were taken to a hospital where it is expected they will recover.

Examination of the room by the police showed the crevices through which the gas might have escaped had been carefully packed with paper, while on a table were found four notes, written by Rock.

Information obtained showed that Rock, who is a war veteran, had been dependent for some time, owing, it is stated, to family troubles.

WAR WEAPONS FOR DEFENCE

New Efficiency of British Lies in Mobility, Says General McNaughton

Officers Welcome New Commander of Military District at Dinner

Declaring that British strategists and military leaders were thinking of war not as a weapon of offence but for defensive purposes, but that a first lesson learned was to deliver a mighty blow before the enemy had stabilized, Brigadier-General A. G. L. McNaughton, C.M.G., D.S.O., new officer commanding Military District No. 11, spoke at a dinner tendered to him by officers of the United Services Institution of Vancouver Island at the Empress Hotel last night.

General McNaughton spoke of the investigations which Britain's Imperial forces had carried on since the Great War, and of movements devised for use (Concluded on page 2)

LONGEST TRAIN SERVICE STARTS

Vancouver Police Hunt Robbers

Vancouver, May 11.—Safe-crackers plied their trade at the premises of the Ice Delivery Company Ltd. At 500 Davis Street, Vancouver, last night, the loot taken being about $180. The yeggs took the combination dial from the safe, removed the tumblers and opened the door, stealing the contents of the various receptacles over the floor.

It is believed it was the crime of an organized band of men who came to the city within the last few weeks, but up to the present the police have been unable to obtain a clue to their identity.

ELKS MAY RUN FORTUNE WHEEL

B.C. Supreme Court Judge Approves Charity Work in Vancouver

Vancouver, May 11.—By a judgment in the British Columbia Supreme Court here to-day Mr. Justice Morrison was confirmed the right of Vancouver Lodge No. 1, B.P.O. Elks, of the Dominion of Canada to operate "wheels of fortune" at its circus on the Cambie Street grounds here.

"I am inclined to think, having regard to the fact that the Elks are a recognized body of reputable citizens and a benevolent organization desirous of increasing contributions to charity, that the only expedient course to take is that one should not be astute to prevent a charitable organization increasing its charitable funds," said the judge.

The Elks' circus, in progress all this week, will end to-morrow.

NEW MILITIA HEAD WELCOMED TO CITY

Brig.-General Andrew G. L. McNaughton, C.M.G., D.S.O., who has succeeded Brig.-General J. M. Ross as Officer Commanding Military District No. 11, General and Mrs. McNaughton and their three children are now in residence at Work Point Barracks. A cordial welcome to Victoria was extended to General McNaughton by the United Services Institution of Vancouver Island at the Empress Hotel last night.

OTTAWA RIVER IN FLOOD NOW

Other Streams in Ontario and Quebec Rise and Cause Losses

Ottawa, May 11.—The Ottawa River, at the foot of Parliament Hill, moved up three inches last night. It is now at the high water mark of 1922, which was the maximum for many years.

Much damage is being done and inconvenience suffered as the floods continue to swell. Numbers of cottages along the shores of Lake Deane, which is an expansion of the Ottawa River above Chaudiere Falls, are surrounded by water and in many cases the main floors of the buildings are submerged. This applies to the summer resorts on the Quebec side of the lake and at Britannia, on the Ontario side.

BOATHOUSES FLOODED

Below the falls the situation is more pressing. The Ottawa Rowing Club has been forced to move its boats. Many of the other boat houses at the Rockcliffe and of the city are floating structures and rise with the river, but all the stationary boathouses are flooded.

Word came from Pembroke, Ontario, early this morning that the water there had risen about four inches in twenty-four hours and a few inches more would flood many of the basements of the business district. Some of the residential sections of the town are under water already, but most of the homes there are built on high ground and are in no danger.

Toronto, May 11.—According to reports reaching here from the flood-stricken areas in Ontario and nearby parts of Quebec Province, the peak of the floods has not yet been reached. The Gatineau River is reported to be steadily rising, while the Montreal River in Northern Ontario in certain places has reached levels which had not been touched since the floods of 1909. Conditions in the Algoma district are said to be improving.

POLICE BOARD AWAITS REPLY FROM LEADER

R.C.M.P. Inspector T. Dann Considers Request He Head Vancouver Force

Acting Chief Needed Until Commissioner R. S. Lennie Completes His Inquiry

Vancouver, May 11.—Even if Royal Canadian Mounted Police authorities at Ottawa agree to release Inspector T. Dann, second in command of the detachment of the force in the Vancouver district, that official is not ready to say as yet whether he will accept the task of administering the Vancouver police force until completion of the inquiry now being held by R. S. Lennie as a special commissioner.

"That will be a matter for consideration," said Inspector Dann to-day.

This announcement leaves the selection of an acting chief still unsettled, although popular opinion is said to be strongly in favor of the action of the police commission in endeavoring to secure the temporary services of a Mounted Police officer.

Should the request be refused at Ottawa or should Inspector Dann decline the offer, the police commission will have to reconsider the entire question.

TAX RATE SET FOR YEAR 1928

Annual Rate By-law Receives First Passage Before City Council To-day

The tax rate, by-law, 1928, was introduced at a special meeting of the City Council, called at 2:30 p.m. to-day, and given its preliminary readings. The by-law fixes the rate at forty-one mills on the full assessed value of the land, and on half the assessed value of improvements. Acting-Mayor R. A. C. Dewar received a warm welcome as he took the chair.

The rate is an increase of three mills from last year, but estimated controllable expenditures in 1928 are less than in 1927. The difference, according to city officials, lies in the fact that estimated receipts this year are considerably less than in 1927, and no large sums were carried forward over the year, apart from the balance from the operation of the city lands department.

As the meeting was a special one called to fix the rate, no other business was taken up to-day. The next regular meeting of the council is called for Monday in next week. The rate by-law must be completed and registered by May 15.

MOVING PICTURE PROJECT STATED

Alfred Hustwick of Los Angeles Behind Proposal Chamber Hears

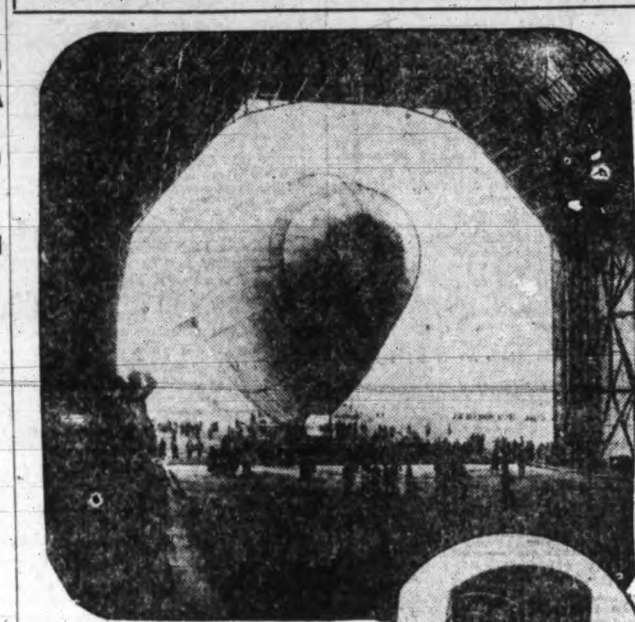

The industrial committee of the City Council is now investigating a proposition for the establishment of a moving picture studio in Victoria, it was learned at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce to-day, when Alderman H. O. Litchfield, heading a delegation from the council, outlined the project, asking for the advice and support of the chamber.

The proposal was from Alfred Hustwick of Los Angeles, Alderman Litchfield explained. Mr. Hustwick had laid a scheme before the city some time ago for a motion picture studio here, but at that time the matter had been dropped. New features had been now included in the project and the industrial committee was now again considering it, he said.

Formation of two companies, one to handle the producing and the other the financial end of the production, were proposed, Alderman Litchfield said. It was with the formation of the financial company that aid was needed, about $100,000 being needed for the first few pictures.

A building at the Willows ground for the studio was suggested, he said. (Concluded on page 3)

SOUTHERN CHINESE APPEAL TO LEAGUE

NEW CONTROL FOR TOWN'S UTILITIES

W. S. Foshay Announces $2,000,000 Purchase in Ketchikan, Alaska

Seattle, May 11.—W. S. Foshay, Minneapolis financier, has purchased the leading utilities in Ketchikan, Alaska, for a consideration of about $2,000,000. His acquisitions, purchased from Seattle and Ketchikan investors, include: The Citizens' Light, Power and Water Company, the Ketchikan Cold Storage Company, the Northland Transportation Company, operating two motorships on the Seattle route, and the Northland Investment Company, a realty holding concern.

Foshay, making the announcement, said his new interests would be merged with other public utility holdings in the United States and Panama with assets totaling about $9,000,000. "The new corporation," he said, would be similar to the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation, organized eighteen months ago combining utility properties in fourteen states, Mexico and Canada. The two corporations are to be under the same management.

LITTLE JOE

YOU, AT LEAST, CAN REMEMBER ALL YOUR FRIENDS IN YOUR GOOD WILL.

Geneva, May 11.—The Chinese Nationalist (Nanking) Government to-day appealed to the League of Nations against the Japanese who have driven the Nationalists out of Tsinan, capital of Shantung Province.

The League secretariat received a communication from the Foreign Minister of the Nanking Government asking intervention by the League under Paragraph Two of Article 11 of the covenant. It also requested that a special meeting of the League Council be convened to investigate the Japanese expeditionary movement into Shantung.

MEMBERS' RIGHT

Paragraph Two of Article 11 of the League Covenant reads: "It is declared to be the friendly right of each member of the League to bring to the attention of the Assembly or of the council any circumstances whatever affecting international relations which threaten to disturb international peace or the good understanding between the nations upon which peace depends."

A dispatch from Shanghai last night said: Japanese soldiers had cleared the last Nationalist forces from Tsinan, capital of Shantung province, to-night, and were in complete control of the city. In the attempted capture of which the Southerners had expended the entire force of their drive toward Peking. Reports of casualties involved in the expulsion of the Southerners from the city are indefinite, but the loss of life is believed to have been heavy, with the probability that many Tsinan civilians were numbered among the dead.

Plane Attempting Records in Spain Wrecked at Start

Seville, Spain, May 11.—Attempting to take off here on a flight to break the world duration and distance records, the aeroplane Jesus del gran Poder crashed into an automobile this morning. The lower right wing was considerably damaged, making a flight impossible.

The plane started down the runway with Capt. Ignacio Jimenez and Capt. Francisco Iglesias for an unannounced destination at 6:15 a.m. The aerodrome was crowded with people, who cheered the fliers.

Suddenly the plane plunged into a military automobile in its path, the flight attempt thus being ended.

NOBILE'S FIRST AIRSHIP ARCTIC HOP 600 MILES

Explorers Leave Spitzbergen in Italia for Forty-four-Hour Flight Over North Pole, But Meet Snowstorm and Northwest Wind and After Seven Hours Aloft Moor Dirigible at Island With Aid of Crew of Supply Ship Citti di Milano

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, May 11.—The dirigible Italia, which left King's Bay this morning for a forty-hour flight over the Polar regions, returned after seven hours because of bad weather conditions. Gen. Umberto Nobile and his crew in the Italia had covered about 300 miles, much of it in a heavy snowstorm and a northwest wind. The weather conditions eventually compelled them to return to the King's Bay base. The crew of the Citti di Milano, the Italia's supply ship, was watching at the landing place and was in wireless communication with airship and consequently was in readiness to haul it in.

The Italia has been at King's Bay since May 6, waiting for favorable weather and being prepared for a series of trips over the North Polar regions, under command of General Umberto Nobile. General Nobile made one previous flight over the Pole in 1926 with Roald Amundsen and Lincoln C. Ellsworth and a crew in the dirigible Norge. In the present undertaking he intends to explore several regions about which little is known. These include Lenin Land, formerly Nicholas Land, which was discovered by Russian explorers, traveling in ice-breakers, in September, 1913.

TO LAND AT POLE

General Nobile also intends to land if possible with some of his crew at the Pole and plant there a cross given him by Pope Pius.

Gen. Nobile and his companions hope to check on the expeditions of Peary and MacMillan in the Polar regions. A companion of General Nobile on his last expedition has been his dog Titiana which seemed reluctant to leave Vadsoe, Norway, when the Italia left there for Spitzbergen, but finally decided to risk another adventure in the Arctic with his master.

General Nobile is planning to use Vadsoe as an auxiliary base in the event the dirigible should be forced to land on one of its expeditions across the Arctic regions.

PACKER MERGER REPORT DENIED

P. Burns and Co. Will Not Be Amalgamated With Canadian Packers Ltd.

Toronto, May 11.—Rumors that the acquisition of P. Burns and Company Ltd. of Calgary, by the Dominion Securities Corporation Ltd., would involve amalgamation with the Canadian Packers Ltd., in a Dominion-wide packing concern were denied to-day by A. L. Fullerton, vice-president of the Dominion Securities, and J. S. McLean, president of the Canadian Packers.

"There is only one reason for the capital reorganization of P. Burns and Company," said Mr. Fullerton. "The fact is that Mr. Burns has reached an age when he wishes to retire from active business. The acquisition of the company by the Dominion Securities Corporation will enable him to realize on his assets in the company." Mr. Fullerton stated.

The present situation of the missionaries in Tsinan is not known at the local headquarters, but it is not believed they have been able to leave the city. All attempts to communicate with them from Shanghai have failed.

WOMAN IS FOUND WITH THROAT CUT

Chief Steward Faces Attempted Murder Charge Following Arrest in Duncan

Francis Henry Ashton, chief steward on the Canadian Government steamship Canadian Coaster, is in jail at Duncan, facing a charge of attempted murder, following the slaying of a chambermaid's throat in the Commercial Hotel, Duncan, yesterday shortly after noon, according to information given this morning by the Provincial Police. The charge will be heard in the Duncan police court.

Miss Julia Donerty was found in a hotel room with her throat cut on both sides. The wounds had been inflicted with a knife. Dr. H. W. Watson was summoned and ordered her to the hospital. Two wounds about four inches long were stitched. She was also suffering from contusions and shock, but after treatment was able to return to the hotel.

Ashton was taken into custody by Provincial Police Constables Shepherd and Hughes.

Ashton, who has been on the Canadian Coaster for two years, originally came out to this country from Liverpool. The Coaster arrived in Victoria yesterday morning from California points and Astoria, in company with J. Sullivan, wireless operator on the vessel, hired a driver yourself car in Victoria and proceeded to Duncan.

WOMAN OF U.S. IS KILLED IN CHINA

Mrs. W. T. Hobart, Church Mission Worker, Murdered in Town Near Tsinan

Shanghai, May 11.—Mrs. William T. Hobart, the American Methodist Mission of Tsinan, near Tsinan, Shantung, was killed April 29 by a bullet fired through a window in her bedroom from an opposite wall, during fighting between Chinese Nationalist and Southern Chinese troops.

Details of Mrs. Hobart's death were received at the local headquarters of the mission today in a letter from Katalan, written May 3, by Miss Helen Stumley, a member of the mission.

Mrs. Hobart, who was sixty-eight years old, was born in the Flushing, Long Island. She and her husband had been missionaries in China since 1882. Two sons reside at Evanston, Ill., and two daughters are in the mission service of the church in foreign fields.

DURING BATTLE

Miss Stumley wrote: "The killing occurred on April 29, after the Nationalists had arrived and fighting was proceeding. We were warned it was unsafe to leave the compound, but did not know we were being made targets. Mrs. Hobart left the sitting room, where she had been reading, and went to a bedroom, which had a small window above the door facing the City Hall. She was hit by a bullet through the window from the wall outside. She was conscious ten minutes and died in one hour."

"From that time on we lived in the basement of the mission building, being fired upon every time we left the building. This was the first opportunity to get out word. No one else was killed, and all the Chinese students are living in the basement with us."

The present situation of the missionaries in Tsinan is not known at the local headquarters, but it is not believed they have been able to leave the city. All attempts to communicate with them from Shanghai have failed.

Under Mr. Nixon's charge Fairfield Church looks forward with hope and confidence to a most successful pastorate.

of modern armies under new conditions of war. He realized, he said, that when ever a professional soldier talked of war he was likely to be charged by a certain element of the civilian population with being an alarmist, fostering fighting.

DOES NOT WANT WAR

"We are thinking of war," he said, "but not from active point of view but from the defensive viewpoint—to keep the defence of our country as sure as possible."

"We do not want war," he added, "if we must have it, we do not want it in our own country. If we have to fight, for goodness' sake do it in another country."

In the matter of consideration of the army as a means of defence, the speaker said that there must be considered also the navy and the air forces, as allied with the army in the task of war.

The dominating characteristics of war at the present time were the machine gun and the artillery activity. Until these were overcome they were not able to bring war to a close. If the world had to repeat the experience of the late war, civilization might possibly go down. In support of this statement, he called to the attention of the officers gathered to welcome him to the city the fact that the average bill for ammunition during the last period of the war for the Canadian Army alone was $1,000,000 a day.

The study of the Imperial trend of events in the preparation of its army was of importance to Canada inasmuch as there had been for a long time an understanding that the armies of Great Britain, of Canada, of Australia and other parts of the Empire should be based on the same lines.

STRIKING POWER

The British Army was experimenting along the line of developing mobility and striking power. With this accomplished to a high degree, the army would be in a position to meet the enemy in the field. It was characteristic of the British that a war when launched should be a decisive one. Generals were produced who were superior to the other side, and history had always shown that these men had been forthcoming.

In Great Britain the experiments were now along the line of substituting mechanical for horse power. There was as yet in war nothing to replace the shock forces of mass formation. Infantry was still the great offensive service. Artillery and other services were all used in order to allow the infantry to get its blow in as quickly as possible and to protect the infantry while it was there. Infantry was still the important branch of the service.

In the new infantry being adopted in the British Army, the machine gun sections were of importance. There would be six of them to each battalion. These machine guns would not be the ones that they were accustomed to in the late war. They would be of larger size and would be carried by motor transport. These machine guns when taken into action would be capable of being fired from the transport, but in many instances would be dismounted and operated by two men, while the transport would be utilized in the carrying of supplies up from the ammunition supply behind, and thus act like ferries between the base and the gun placed in position.

On the subject of transport Gen. McNaughton pointed out that this was playing a most important matter in the experiments being carried out in Great Britain. This applied even to the cooking of the meat. The cooking was done as far as fifteen miles back of the lines, and the food carried to the fighting force still hot.

With respect to the transport of men themselves, the matter was one of study and experiment. The future however, appeared to point to the inclusion of having the men reach the fighting line as fresh as possible.

INFANTRY

Reverting to the importance of infantry in the war, the speaker said that the infantry commanders were going to have a large task to perform. Not only would the battalion commander have to look after the infantry, but he would have sixteen machine guns and the matter of transport to take into account. At the same time he would be called upon to look back to supporting artillery.

In this matter of rapid mobilization to artillery, engineers and the ambulance and other branches of the service were all being provided for, so as to give as rapid mobilization as was at all possible.

In the matter of the cavalry there would also be attached to the divisions machine guns on similar basis as that attached to the infantry battalion. The infantry and the cavalry would use the old efficiency but would be brought up to date with respect to rapidity of mobilization.

ARMORED DIVISION

The armored division was dealt with by the new district commandant, who pointed out that the unit of the division was the tank. The object of this end of the service was to get in touch with the enemy, do as much damage as possible and get away again without loss. Up to the present, the experiments were along the line of the action of the tank against the man power of the opposing armies. The application of the principle of tank against tank would be the subject of later investigation.

The new tanks that were being brought into use were handier to maneuver than the old ones known to them in the days of the late war. They were armed with large guns and also carried two machine guns. In the direction of the guns the use of wireless was brought into use.

VICTORIA'S YOUNG QUEEN IN A THOUGHTFUL MOOD

Here is another photograph of Victoria's first schoolgirl May Queen, Miss Marguerite Jones. She appears pensive. Or perhaps the photographer caught her in a pose when she was not wearing the winning smile, which has endeared her in the hearts of her many school chums who supported her in the contest at the High School. It's a lucky girl who is elected May Queen. Marguerite will realize today when she hears that Joseph Rose, Jeweler of 1913 Government Street, will present the schoolgirl Queen with a handsome white gold Bulova wrist watch as a permanent souvenir of her girlish adventure as ruler over the Victoria Day celebrations. The presentation will be made at the coronation ceremony at the Armories, Mr. Rose stated.

Under the new order there would be a force under this head extending for a stretch of thirty miles of front, and all under the control of a commander. The task that was put upon the commander was not an easy one. There must be no unnecessary delay. The commander therefore must make up his mind, and act at once before the opportunity passed. There were experiments in two-man light tanks also, which were replacing the old one-man tank. There was a lot of development to take place in this connection, however.

The tanks were being made to go across country, anywhere a horse could go, and even better than that.

APPLICATION TO CANADA

Before Closing General McNaughton applied the lessons that were being taught by the experiments in Great Britain to the Canadian militia. His advice was to pursue the course of continuing the training of officers as at the present time. To spend large sums on equipment would, he thought, be unwise. It would be duplicating the experiments that were being carried out in England.

He believed in the moral preparation. There must be a preparation of the minds by getting exact information. This did not cost much, and he found that officers were only too glad to cooperate if shown the way. There should be use made of what was nationally available in the country instead of duplicating what was being done somewhere else.

He expressed the hope that as the training season came on, he might be of service to the officers by suggestions that would be of benefit to them, and their corps.

Colonel J. Lightbody, who presided at the dinner, expressed the pleasure at having General McNaughton present, and also at the fact that Hon. W. C. Nichol, Colonel C. W. Peck, V.C., D.S.O., Sir Percy Lake, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Colonel J. C. Harris, Colonel T. E. Harrison, Colonel F. Gillman, Colonel Lorne, Colonel A. W. R. Wilby and Colonel Lorne Drum.

Vitames A and D Essential to Growth

By DR. MORRIS FISHER

It is now generally recognized that vitamins A and D, found principally in cod liver oil, are essential for the growth of the human body and of the greatest importance in sustaining resistance to disease.

Vitamin D has been traced to its source and can now be produced artificially.

Of vitamin A not so much is known. The British Medical Research Council in its report (1926-1927) points out that the proportion of vitamin A in the liver fat of the salmon and the halibut are more than one hundred times as rich as cod liver oil.

USE OF LIVER FAT

The liver fats of the sheep, calf and ox contain ten times as much vitamin A as good cod liver oil, and from 200 to 1,000 times more vitamin A than a good average sample of butter. Vitamin A can therefore be supplied to the body by the use of liver fat, either with butter or oleomargarine, or in some other way. The fats extracted from the liver of animals are entirely free from the unpleasant flavor of fish oils. Herbivorous animals do not, however, store vitamin D in the liver as do the fish, but vitamin D can now be obtained by irradiating ergosterol.

LOSS THROUGH DEFICIENCY

The British Medical Research Council says that there can be no reasonable doubt from all the evidence now available that the great majority of the British public suffers from a deficiency of these essential parts of food.

It says, furthermore, that the cost of this deficiency in human suffering and in economic loss is incalculable but certainly vast. No doubt the application of the knowledge now available regarding the places in which vitamins A and D are to be had soon will be applied practically to the great benefit of the human race.

Oregon to Have Big Lumber Mill

Klamath Falls, Ore., May 11.—Construction here of what is expected to be the largest lumber manufacturing plant in Oregon will be started before June 15, George S. Long of Tacoma, general manager of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company, disclosed here last night at the annual meeting of the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce. July 1 next year is the date planned for first operation of the mill. The capacity of the mill, operating one shift, will be between 250,000 and 275,000 feet daily.

Funds For Alberta Voted By Commons

Ottawa, May 11.—Estimates for public works in Alberta totaling $50,850 were approved by the House last night. H. B. Adhead, Labor, Calgary East, said Calgary needed a new post office.

Cuticura Talcum Unadulterated Exquisitely Scented

617 CORMORANT ST. PHON. 536

The present post office was rented at a rate of $70,000 a year and the lease would expire in 1929. The Government, many years ago, had purchased site for a public building in Calgary, but for fifteen years this had been surrounded by a board fence. It was in the business section of the town and was an eyesore, he said.

Mr. Adhead said Calgary was more important financially than Ottawa, and that it ranked as the fifth city in the country with respect to bank clearings.

CHURCH GROWTH IN B.C. STATED

Canon Perkins of Westminster Abbey Replies to Bishop Greig's Statements

London, May 11 (Canadian Press Cable)—"An undesired reproach both to the Church of England in the Old Country and the Church of England in Canada," is Canon Jocelyn H. T. Perkins's characterization of the statement made by Bishop J. H. Greig of Guildford at a missionary meeting in Woking, Surrey, yesterday.

The Bishop said: "In British Columbia, where the British portion of the population is increasing, there is danger of the people growing up absolutely pagan. No religion is taught in the schools there and no means of teaching religion are supplied by the church at home."

Canon Perkins, speaking of the matter to-day, said the bishop's assertion was not only an undesired reproach to the church in Great Britain and Canada, but that it required a great deal of qualification because "it is a gross slight on British Columbia."

Continuing Canon Perkins said: "The church has made tremendous efforts in British Columbia and is doing so with vigour. In 1889, when Dr. Hills went there, he found six clergymen at work. To-day there are five dioceses, 160 clergymen and a theological college for the training of men for clergy."

"For the Bishop of Guildford to say no means of teaching religion is supplied by the church at home is a libel on the different societies working here for British Columbia."

FUNDS NEEDED
"Will the Bishop of Guildford help us to obtain money and additional clergy for the work in British Columbia?"

Rev. Dr. Perkins, sacrist and a minor canon of Westminster Abbey, has been general secretary of the British Columbia and Yukon Church Aid Society since 1910 and has visited British Columbia several times.

He draws attention to the handsome manner in which the populous parts of British Columbia support their own coast missions and the missions for Orientals. At the same time he anxiously exhorts the church people here to support more particularly the Diocese of Cariboo, Caledonia and Kootenay, although he is not prepared to say what share of the burden should be borne by the church people.

AID FOR CATHEDRAL
Canon Perkins says he hopes to make an appeal here shortly for assistance for the new cathedral at Victoria, B.C.

REQUEST FORMALLY MADE

Vancouver, May 11—Major H. M. Newson, officer commanding the Royal Canadian Mounted Police detachment here, was asked this morning by the city police commission to request police headquarters at Ottawa to authorize the temporary release of Inspector Dan Dunn, second in command of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in this district, to act as temporary chief of the Vancouver city force.

Inspector Dunn has served in all police districts of the West. He was stationed for a considerable time at Macleod, Alberta. For the last six months he has been second in command here, and for the three and a half years preceding was stationed at Winnipeg.

OTTAWA AWAITS REQUEST
Ottawa, May 11—No request from the Vancouver police commission to leave Dunn to act as temporary chief of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in that district as acting chief of the Vancouver police during an investigation of police affairs in that city had been received at the Department of Justice to-day.

GO OUTSIDE OF FORCE
Vancouver, May 11—The Vancouver police commission, at a meeting yesterday afternoon, decided to go outside the force for an acting chief of the city police department during the further progress of the inquiry being held by R. S. Lennie, a special commissioner, and requested that Inspector Dunn, second in command of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police stationed at Vancouver, be allowed to act in that capacity.

This decision was arrived at after a somewhat acrimonious discussion, during which Commissioner T. W. Fletcher proposed that ex-Chief William McRae be appointed acting chief, but found no support.

REQUEST SENT TO OTTAWA

Instructions therefore were given that the officer in command of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police here should immediately be requested to telegraph Ottawa for permission to release the second in command for the purpose. None of the commissioners new the name of the officer in question, it being stated it was simply the desire to obtain an independent man for the position.

In the meantime it was decided Deputy Chief Dan Leatherdale should act as chief.

RELIEVED OF DUTIES

The requests to be relieved from duty pending the completion of Commissioner Lennie's inquiry, received from Chief H. W. Long and Inspector Sergeant George McLaughlin, were acceded to without discussion.

Commissioner Fletcher asked that Inspector John Jackson, head of the morality squad, also be relieved from duty until the conclusion of the investigation.

This, however, was not entertained, on the ground that no charges had yet been preferred against that officer.

MINISTERS ATTENDED

The meeting of the police commission yesterday afternoon was held in the mayor's office. Rev. J. W. Ogden and Rev. A. H. Huntley were present. They stated they were not there in any official capacity, but simply private citizens.

In view of the voluntary action of Chief Long and Sergeant McLaughlin in requesting that they be relieved of duty till the end of the inquiry, the city council's resolution requesting action on Mr. Lennie's interim report was filed.

UNDERSTANDING DENIED

When Commissioner Garbutt's motion for the second in command of the Mounted Police to be acting chief had been carried on his and Mayor Taylor's votes Commissioner T. W. Fletcher asked whether the two commissioners had it all "cut and dried" before they came to the meeting.

This was strenuously denied by both, and the meeting terminated without the proverbial "oil being poured on the troubled waters."

STATEMENT BY GARBUTT

Early in the meeting Commissioner Garbutt outlined his attitude, saying in part:

"So far I have had very little to say. My position as a police commissioner is very embarrassing. During my service as a commissioner, any reports that came to me in regard to any wrongdoing in the city, I immediately looked into. They were gone into by the police and satisfactory reports were made to me. I had absolute confidence in the officers."

"There were many stories floating around from time to time, such as Sergeant McLaughlin's $1,000 Christmas dinner, and Detective McGregor having liquor in his basement. There also were reports as to Prior Street and other streets. As these stories came to me, I directed to the chief and gave him information. Many other stories came to me from time to time, and reports came back to me from the chief that there was nothing in them."

"One of my co-commissioners has intimated that I am implicated in graft, along with another member of the police commission. It is said I am running with Taylor, and reports that I am a grafter."

"I challenge any living man to show I have done any wrong in my capacity as a commissioner or as a member of the city council, or that I have been a party to any wrongdoing, or that I have known of any wrong and not endeavored to right it. I have done my best as I saw it, and I always stood for what I considered to be best in the interests of a clean city."

"I consider it only fair for Commissioner Fletcher to resign from this board. He has accused two members of the commission of wrongdoing, and if he is prepared to resign, I am prepared at any time to step down while this investigation is on."

"I am a little surprised Mr. Garbutt should make a statement of that kind," declared Commissioner Fletcher. "I never accused Commissioner Garbutt of any wrongdoing. I never said at any time that he was implicated in graft or anything else. I have heard what has been going on in the city. These stories have been followed up by a great many people as well as myself."

"If Mr. Garbutt thinks I am going to hand in my resignation, he makes a mistake. I have studied this investigation, and I am going through with it, and I am going to remain on this board after the investigation is through."

"I have heard," continued Mr. Fletcher, "that efforts have been made to have the Attorney-General remove me from the commission. The Attorney-General has no intention of asking me to resign. The Attorney-General has no power to discharge me from this commission. The order-in-council, and that order-in-council is not coming forth."

SEES HIS DUTY
"When a commissioner will get up and say there is nothing wrong in Vancouver, I do not think he is fulfilling his duty properly," continued Mr. Fletcher. "The policemen on the beat know what is going on, but the men higher up will not allow them to do anything."

"I want to say Vancouver is getting next to Chicago, and if we go on as we are doing, it will be as bad as Chicago in a very short time. I am trying to prevent this being brought about. This investigation was started by me, and I will go on and continue it. I am not going to resign."

Dry Squad Man
Appears in Court

Vancouver, May 11—William McGillivray, city dry squad operative, yesterday was charged with conspiring to give false testimony in a judicial proceeding. He is held on bail bonds of $3,000.

The charge arises out of the case of R. J. Errington, charged with selling liquor. Errington will appear for hearing in police court on May 17, and it is expected the charge against McGillivray also will be heard on that day.

It is alleged in the information against McGillivray that, being a witness in a judicial proceeding, he, for a money consideration, agreed to give false testimony.

Three field batteries, which the Japanese had placed in the Foreign Settlement, started to shell the city with shrapnel early in the day. Most of the population of 400,000 were caught unaware, and a heavy slaughter is believed to have resulted.

In the course of the fighting the Japanese blew up the southern and western corners of the city wall, and what Southerners were left in the city departed in a rout, fleeing northward across the Yellow River. Resistance by the Nationalists in the main amounted to no more than sniping, although occasionally small bands put up desperate fights to avoid being disarmed and expelled from the city by the Japanese.

According to Nationalist reports to Shanghai, the Japanese now have complete control not only of Tsinan, but of the entire Shantung railway to the south end of the bridge across the Yellow River, and the city of Kienin, situated fifteen miles east of Tsinan.

ANTI-FOREIGN SENTIMENT
In Shanghai an increasing anti-foreign sentiment among the Chinese could be sensed.

Hsing Fu, Nanjing Foreign Minister, who arrived from Tsinan, stated the Nanjing authorities had cabled C. C. Wu, former Foreign Minister, now in Paris, asking him to proceed to Washington for the purpose of bringing the Shantung situation to the attention of the United States Government and possibly asking the United States to mediate in the Tsinan affair.

A Tokio dispatch said: A dispatch to the Japanese News Agency reports that the Southern Chinese who clashed with a Japanese brigade Wednesday at Kotien City, east of Tsinan, Shantung, suffered casualties of from 200 to 300 killed. The Japanese lost twenty to thirty men.

The floods in the Cobalt district have resulted in operations being suspended at the Miller Lake O'Brien Mine in Gowanda, a flume having been washed out, halting the power-house. The road from Elk Lake to Cobalt can not be used owing to the destruction of a bridge, while two feet of water is reported in a hotel at Elk Lake. The high water carried a house down the Montreal River at this point.

Considerable damage has been caused by the Montreal River overflowing at Latchford, southwest of Cobalt, and carrying away lumber. The railroad tracks at Latchford are reported to be under thirty inches of water.

Families in the village of Gatineau Point, Quebec, northeast of Hull, at the junction of the Ottawa and Gatineau Rivers, are moving out of their homes, which are close to the river banks. Other families are living in the upper stories of the homes and using boats to reach dry land.

In the Salt Ste. Marie district flood waters are reported the worst in years. At Espanola the water has risen seventeen feet above the normal level in the Spanish River, necessitating the temporary suspension of operations in the paper mills there.

SOUTH OKANAGAN CANDIDATES
Kelowna, B.C., May 11.—After a lengthy debate, the Liberal convention here on Thursday by unanimous vote decided to place no Liberal candidate in the field in South Okanagan for the provincial general election. The candidature of M. G. Wilson of Summerland was withdrawn. This leaves only Mayor Sutherland, independent candidate, and J. W. Jones, M.P.P., Conservative, in the running.

Alderman Litchfield pointed out a thorough investigation had been made of the California interests behind the scheme, and these references had proved satisfactory. Mayor Penderguy, who is now on his way South, is to look into the matter, he said.

Alderman B. C. Dewar, acting mayor, supported Alderman Litchfield in his statements, stating detailed investigation of the proposition had been made. Alderman E. S. Woodward, who also attended the meeting, though the matter would devolve upon the community as far as finance were concerned.

The directors decided to refer the scheme to the industrial committee of the chamber for a full report, also thanking the City Hall delegation for their appearance at the meeting.

SAANICH AND THE HIGH SCHOOL

IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT AN AMICABLE arrangement will be reached between the Victoria and Saanich authorities in connection with the attendance of Saanich students at the High School. There are a number of important factors, apart from that of the fee charged, which should be taken into careful consideration.

Trustee Beckwith points out that if the Saanich pupils were withdrawn, the High School would suffer a loss of revenue of something like $18,500, whereas the saving of teachers' salaries would amount to only $9,500. In other words, Victoria would be the loser to the extent of $9,000. This is the plain bookkeeping aspect of the controversy.

It has been said that if the Saanich pupils were to be withdrawn, the necessity of building a new High School here would be obviated for years. This is not altogether the case. The present student roll of Victoria pupils is more than one thousand and the building was not intended to accommodate any more, basement rooms having been utilized to meet the extra demand now being made upon the accommodation. The natural increase in the annual enrolment, of course, soon would oblige the School Board to erect more commodious premises.

There is another angle which must be taken into account. If the Saanich pupils were withdrawn, Saanich would have to erect its own High School; but the time may not be far distant when the urban areas of that municipality will form part of the city of Victoria. In that case the school authorities of this municipality would have to provide High School accommodation and tuition. Here, then, is a further demonstration that any disturbance of the present arrangement would be economically unsound.

In a broad sense, moreover, the interests of these adjoining municipalities are so closely associated with one another that it is highly desirable nothing in the nature of friction should be generated. Progress here and in the surrounding communities will be assured only by harmonious co-operation. That would be worth paying for. It would be foolish to disturb it for $9,000.

THAT "STABLE" TARIFF

WHEN THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY returns to power, as it will return, we will have a fixed tariff policy, a stable tariff policy."—Hon. Hugh Guthrie, M.P., at Guelph, Ont., last night.

There is a familiar ring about this declaration of the former Conservative leader. We heard it all through the campaigns of 1925 and 1926. Mr. Meighen and the lesser lights of the party used it on practically every occasion; but not a single Conservative speaker or newspaper explained what is meant either by a "fixed" or "stable" tariff policy.

In the 1925 campaign Mr. Meighen said that Canada should profit by the example of the United States—which had put its tariff up fifty per cent. On the floor of Parliament five years previously Mr. Meighen had said this: "We can never have a high tariff in Canada in the first place, a high tariff is unsound in principle in that it tends to eliminate one of the factors of competition, namely, foreign goods. Foreign goods must be allowed to enter competition under fair conditions in this or in any other country. WE MUST ALWAYS HAVE IN THIS COUNTRY NOTHING MORE THAN A MODERATE TARIFF UNDER ANY CONDITIONS WHATSOEVER."

When Mr. Meighen propounded this fiscal policy for Canada he had not assumed the premiership. As Prime Minister, of course, his outlook changed. He was able to hear the clear voice of special privilege and quickly responded to it. A small section of eastern producers cracked the whip and he jumped through the hoop. His announcement in 1925 was to a Vancouver audience. But in his speeches on the Prairies he was all for a "stable" tariff.

Mr. Meighen's policies were endorsed by Mr. Guthrie. Now will he tell us what he means by a "stable" or a "fixed" tariff? Does he expect a tariff which will suit the big interests of the east to satisfy the farmers of the west? He obviously knows what the Conservative Party is up against on the Prairies. The decision to hold its national convention at Winnipeg last year was intended as a friendly gesture to the low tariff elements; but other influences were altogether too strong to permit any such friendly gesture to be brought into the realm of practical politics.

In other words, the tariff policy of the Conservative Party is a high tariff. When it is called by any other name it is merely a bid for political advantage. The people of Canada are not deceived by fake names. The Conservative election cry caught some of them in 1925; but they gave their verdict on the tariff and a few other things in 1926. They have seen trade grow and employment increase in the meantime.

THE GERMAN BEGINS TO PLAY

ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL FACTORS OF the German's success in many things he undertakes is his capacity for learning a lesson and profiting by it. He has absorbed, for example, an important lesson from the war and is applying it with typical Teutonic thoroughness. This is the knowledge of how to play. All over the new republic something in the nature of a mad scramble to join sports organizations is taking place. Men and women, as well as boys and girls, have become infected with the fever. Latest statistics inform us that nearly twelve million Germans now belong to some body devoted to recreation. It is a good omen for the future—good for Germany herself and an effective antidote to the militarist virus.

In the days before the war the average German youth took little or no interest in sports. He looked upon recreation of the demonstrative kind as a confession of something approaching childishness. He felt that after his day's work he had to spend his evening or other spare time in study. To play, if something could be gained by more serious application, was not to be thought of. It was too much like the British style of conduct. We recall how the German—especially the young "volunteer" who worked in Old Country cities and towns for a mere pittance in order to learn the language and study British commercial methods—denied football and looked with a sort of pity on pictures of great crowds of excited Britons enjoying a Saturday afternoon at a league contest. As for the German woman, of course, for her it was "Kirche, Kueche, und Kinder"—church, kitchen and children. Then came the war and the crucial test—British individualism versus the German machine.

There would be no point in disparaging the fighting qualities of the German. He was as brave as the rest; but the records indicate that he was outdone in resource and initiative by the Tommies of the British Empire. The training they had received on the playing fields was invaluable to them; many were the calls upon their individualism, their sporting instinct, their self-reliance in emergency—and seldom were those calls in vain. But the German apparently has learned his lesson. No longer does a football crowd provoke an ironical comment. There is in his new outlook a challenge to the junker jingo.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

SPEAKING AT GUELPH, ONTARIO, last night, Premier Ferguson announced that technical schools in his province would be carried on regardless of whether the Dominion Government continues to aid such institutions or not.

There are many public questions upon which we differ from the Ontario Premier; but his views on the value of technical education agree with ours. Obviously Mr. Ferguson knows whereof he speaks. He understands the benefits which the youth of his province have derived from instruction obtained in these institutions.

In British Columbia, Vancouver and New Westminster in particular, we can furnish similar proof of the value of technical training. When the proposal for a technical school in Victoria shall be submitted to the taxpayers of this city next time we hope the decision of our ratepayers will be in accord with the trend of modern progress.

By extending technical education in Canada we are equipping the youth of the country for an effective part in its development. It is a first-class investment which pays good dividends. A technical school in any community is tangible evidence of a progressive spirit.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

FOREST INDUSTRIES

(From The Quebec Soleil)

It seems to be practically certain that the forest industries furnish more capital to the State than any single industry in Canada, though it is impossible to obtain precise figures on the question. Taxes and duties imposed by the Government reach them at all stages of the industry. Income tax takes one-eleventh of the net profit obtained by the companies, while it takes away from the owners, that is to say the shareholders, other sums proportionate to the fortune of each one of them.

WHAT THE AMER SAW

(From The Toronto Star)

For a long time Afghanistan, between India and Russia, has been an anxiety to Britain. It may be now that that country will be less so. The Amer has visited Britain. He has seen what he is up against when he opposes her power.

The Amer has seen the British navy manoeuvre. He has seen tanks by the hundreds, big one and whippers. He has been taken up in aeroplanes and under the sea in submarines. He has gone down in a coal mine and cut there a block of coal for himself. He has seen a football match with fifty thousand spectators. He has seen the Strand, with its enormous traffic, its uncountable multitudes, and he has seen new buildings arising into the sky as by magic.

The two things that are supposed to have impressed the Amer most were the going of men down into the darkest recesses of the earth to bring up coal because it is needed, and (2) the fury with which football is played, men almost slaying each other, yet obeying the rules and not losing their tempers.

It is not at all improbable that Afghanistan may decide that the sensible course for the future is to meet half-way these overtures for peace and friendship that the British people have so long been making.

YES, IT'S A FENNEC

On Wednesday, The Times printed a picture of a tiny, fox-like, pert-looking animal which a New York animal fancier had received. There was a rush of readers to identify it. Those who decided it was a fennec, hailing from Africa, seem to have been correct.

A young lady, after seeing the picture, wrote an interesting story about the fennec. It follows:

By HATTIE M. GRIESE
The fennec lives in Africa. It is found in Nubia and Egypt. It is a very pretty and lively little creature. The color of the fennec is a very pale fawn that is almost a creamy white. The tail is bushy and boldly marked with black.

The adult fennec measures scarcely more than a foot in length, exclusive of the tail, which is eight inches long. Though carnivorous, the fennec likes to feed upon fruits, preferably the date. It is said to be able to climb the trunk of the date palm to procure for itself this coveted luxury.

The fennec lives in the ground. It scoops a hole in the light soil. It is said to build a nest in trees. The curious little animal is not entirely without use to man, for its fur is of value among the native tribes of Africa. It is very warm when made up into garments.

On account of the smallness of the animal, a single pelt forms but a small portion of a coat, and the fur is highly valued.

Seldom during the day does the fennec show itself. It goes out mostly at night. Even when it has spent some time in captivity, it retains its restless nocturnal demeanor, sleeping most of the day.

It is a quaint little creature, with an air of mischief that has a funny effect in so small an animal. Its eyes are blue, and the whiskers that decorate its face are long and thick and white.

The fennec is identical with the fox-like animal that is known as "zerda" and "cerdo."

To strengthen legs, weak after an illness, sit on a table and grasp them at intervals; the method involves no strain and the body-weight is eliminated.

Power Corporation To Issue New Stock For B.C. Electric Deal

Montreal, May 11.—Announcement of the plan of the Power Corporation of Canada Limited, to issue a substantial block of new shares on favorable terms to its shareholders, is considered in financial circles as a preliminary to that corporation's participation in the British Columbia Electric Railway deal.

As the British Columbia public utility, operating in Vancouver, Victoria and surrounding territory, is highly developed, the proposed new interests look largely to future growth, particularly of hydro-electric developments, as their chief concern.

This will be provided by the harnessing of Bridge River, which is now in progress. As it can develop 100,000 horse power, growth of requirements for years to come will be provided for.

Speaking of this development, George Kidd, president of B.C. Electric, is quoted as saying: "Bridge River power will mean that all the power these enterprises will need for a generation will be ready for them as and when they want it. The ultimate possibility is so great that business men now alive will hardly see their exhaustion. We will develop that power just as fast as the demand increases, always with a view of allowing no power shortage ever to retard the growth of Vancouver and district."

"As the growth of the city is expected to proceed rapidly as the rich natural resources of the Province are developed to a great extent, fresh capital will be needed from time to time. The community is always attractive to investment bankers whose machinery is designed to meet the requirements of such cases."

C.P.R. EMPLOYEE GETS PROMOTION

Vancouver Man With Company Twenty-three Years Receives New Position

Vancouver, B.C., May 11.—The appointment of J. Ivan Mackay to the position of assistant to the general superintendent of the British Columbia division, Canadian Pacific Railway, effective May 15, was announced by C. A. Cotterell, general superintendent, to-day. Mr. Mackay has been chief clerk in general office in Vancouver for nine years.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to make this announcement," said Mr. Cotterell, "as Mr. Mackay has by persistent application and study, fitted himself in every way for the recognition of services that he is now receiving."

Mr. Mackay's railway experience has been wide, entering the service of the Canadian Pacific originally as a railroad telegrapher, following a brief term in the wharf freight office in Vancouver for more than twenty-three years ago. He has filled increasingly important positions which included those of chief clerk in the car service and fuel department here in 1909, chief clerk to the general superintendent in Winnipeg, and as trainmaster, assistant superintendent and car service agent.

Mr. Mackay returned to Vancouver as chief clerk to the general superintendent in 1919, and has served in that capacity since that date. The position now created by Mr. Mackay's appointment is an entirely new one so far as Vancouver is concerned, and is taken as evidence of the requirements of the company's increasing interests and activities on the Pacific Coast.

Alberta's Eastern Coal Shipments Are To Be Increased

Calgary, May 11.—Coal operators, meeting in Calgary yesterday, heard with the greatest pleasure the announcement from Ottawa that the Board of Railway Commissioners had ruled in their favor by declaring the 87.5 rate for moving Alberta coal to Ontario was "a maximum and uniform rate covering all movements from Alberta."

berta points to Ontario, even when those took place on more than one line of railway and inclusive of switching charges if such were incurred."

Following the original finding of the Railway Commission the transcontinental railways filed tariffs which stated switching charges would be made when coal was brought from a point on one railway to a point of delivery on another.

The operators protested and were joined by other influential organizations.

Commenting on the Railway Board's finding, Howard Stutchbury, Alberta trade commissioner, now working with the Canadian coal committee, said: "I think it is safe to say the shipments of Alberta coal to Ontario will be gratifying news since the signing of the original order. It opens up a very large field where there is an insistent demand and where until the present it has been impossible to make deliveries."

New York, May 11.—A nine-month quest in Brazil for a reputed tribe of "white" Indians resulted in the discovery of one lone light complexioned Indian who was so ill with malaria that no satisfactory study of his origin could be made. Dr. Herbert Spencer Dickey, head of the Dickey-Hatke Expedition, reported upon his arrival here on the liner American Legion yesterday. Dr. Dickey said he had been told, however, of a tribe of seventy "white" Indians, supposed to live on the Padana River, an affluent of the Orinoco, but said he had been unable to reach them.

NEWSPAPER PURCHASED

London, May 11.—The keen rivalry which existed for some time between the group headed by Sir William Berry and Lord Rothermere for control of a newspaper in Aberdeen, Scotland, has ended in the success of the former interest, although the successful offer was the lower of the two. The Berry group agreed to pay £4 sterling a

Police Commission to Ask City Council to Cancel Parking Privileges

Arterial Highways Plan Will Be Put Into Force at Once, Board Decides

Buses will not be allowed to stand on city streets waiting to pick up their passengers after December 31 of this year, if the City Council takes action on a motion passed by the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday afternoon.

Sponsored by Commissioner Walter Stanaland the motion which will be forwarded to the council is as follows: "I move that the Mayor and City Council be informed that this board is opposed to the principle of giving special areas for parking privileges on the streets, to bus and stage owners. We would suggest the owners be given an opportunity of securing suitable premises and that notice be given that all privileges granted under the by-law will be cancelled on December 31, 1928." The motion was seconded by Commissioner William White.

Cute in a Baby—Awful at Three—and it's Dangerous

by Ruth Brittain

Thumb sucking does look sweet in a baby, but it is disgusting in the three-year-old and sometimes it hangs on until fifteen or sixteen! The habit may cause an ill-formed mouth or induce adenoids; and it always interferes with digestion. Pinning the sleeve over the hand, attaching mittens, or putting on cardboard cuffs, which prevent bending the arms at the elbows, are some of the ways to stop the habit.

Another bad habit—irregularity in bowel action—is responsible for weak bowels and constipation in babies. Give the tiny bowels an opportunity to act at regular periods each day. If they don't act at first, a little Fletcher's Castoria will soon regulate them. Every mother should keep a bottle of it handy to use in case of colic, cholera, diarrhoea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, loss of sleep, or when baby is cross and feral. Its gentle influence over baby's system enables him to get full nourishment from his food, helps him gain, strengthens his bowels.

Castoria is purely vegetable and harmless—the recipe is on the wrapper. Physicians have prescribed it for over thirty years. With each package, you get a book on Motherhood. Look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper so you'll get the genuine.

Oak Bay Rock Crusher Finds Few Friends

Oak Bay's municipal rock crusher for the last few months a bone of contention between residents of Gonzales neighborhood and the council was again to the fore last night when the Automobile Club of British Columbia, in a letter to the council, termed the apparatus an eyesore and suggested it be moved to the Milton Street yards from its present position on Highland Drive.

The council gave the matter careful consideration. It would cost $300 for the municipality to disassemble part of the crusher for its removal to Milton Street and its return next fall to the present site, Engineer Davidson reported.

"Why not let the people to whom it causes distress have it moved at their expense," suggested Councillor Hew Paterson.

"It seems to me the apparatus had been there a long time with no complaints," Councillor Means added. "That's just the kick," retorted Reeve Hayward. "It's been there too long, it seems."

Mr. Davidson pointed out the crusher had become rusted, and dismantling, re-assembling and painting for its moving would cost money.

"Perhaps you'd never get it together again," interposed Councillor Asher.

"It had been suggested that the outfit be run steadily until it had completed its work in the neighborhood. But there was already as much rock prepared as could be handled," Mr. Davidson pointed out.

"I'm sure the residents would find it a worse nuisance were it operating in the summer when the dust flies readily," said Councillor Crease. "It is a sleeping dog now and I think we should let it lie."

The matter was referred to the works committee for a report on its possible disposal.

Winter Wheat Killing High

Ottawa, May 10.—The crop report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics gives the proportion of winter killed wheat as twenty-one per cent, or 213,000 acres. The area of fall wheat remaining to be harvested is given as 795,500 acres.

The percentage of twenty-one winter killed in 1928 compares with thirty per cent in 1927 and 1928, and is larger than in any year since 1918, when fifty-two per cent of the area sown was reported as winter killed in all Canada.

The percentage now reported is also higher than the average—twelve per cent—for the ten years, 1918-27.

YOUNG PIPERS JOIN PARADE

Victoria Junior Pipe Band Off to Bellingham With Pretty Lassies

Victoria's Junior Pipe Band left for Bellingham early this morning to participate in the Washington city's tulip festival parade and the celebrations which are planned for to-day and tomorrow. They lined up outside the Empress Hotel to be photographed before their departure, with little Irene White and Nancy Ferguson, two winners of Highland games in killed costume, accompanying them.

The pipe band will march in a prominent position in the Bellingham parade, and the two lassies will lead them, one on either side of the Drum Major.

Little Miss White will carry a big bouquet of Spring flowers, given her by Woodward's Flower Store, a gift from Victoria to the Queen of the Bellingham carnival.

Winter Wheat Killing High

Ottawa, May 10.—The crop report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics gives the proportion of winter killed wheat as twenty-one per cent, or 213,000 acres. The area of fall wheat remaining to be harvested is given as 795,500 acres.

The percentage of twenty-one winter killed in 1928 compares with thirty per cent in 1927 and 1928, and is larger than in any year since 1918, when fifty-two per cent of the area sown was reported as winter killed in all Canada.

The percentage now reported is also higher than the average—twelve per cent—for the ten years, 1918-27.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

of Canada, Limited

A Cupboard Love you'll understand

DAD'S a popular man when he brings home a box of Downyflake Doughnuts. Yes, it may be "Cupboard Love," but it's excusable. All Mothers and Dads were youngsters themselves once and remember the time when cakes and candy had an irresistible appeal to them, too. And with Downyflakes—well, get a box and taste them and you will be as enthusiastic as the youngest. Flavor? Oh, boy!—made with special downy-flake flour, shortened with Crisco and fried in our special doughnut machine, then coated with finest sugar—they are a real treat—free from that old greasiness—you could eat a boxful yourself and still want more.

Take a box home from your store or hail the 4X Salesman tomorrow.

OLD-TIMERS GO DOWN TO DEFEAT IN FIRST GAME

Eagles Take Veterans Into Camp in Their Debut in Amateur Baseball

Old-timers Took Early Lead But Errors Later Hurt Their Chances of Winning

Frank Moore and his gang of Old-timers met defeat in their first appearance last night in the Senior Amateur Baseball League. The Eagles rode them hard for five innings when darkness put an end to the game when the score read 9-4.

The veterans were without the services of Alex. Strath and Ry Green and as a result their infield was weakened. Too many errors kept the Old-timers in trouble most of the way. The Eagles opened the scoring in the first inning when they brought two runners home on a walk, two errors and a single. In their half of the inning the Vets took the lead. After the Old-timers scored another run in the inning, Durdie was safe on an error and went to second when Givens walked. He scored on Frank Moore's hit to centre, while Givens was caught at the plate.

PLENTY OF SCORING
The Eagles continued the scoring in the second inning, adding one run to their score. Downes walked, stole second, was sacrificed to third and came home on Robinson's hit to rightfield. The Old-timers scored another run in the inning. Durdie was safe on an error and went to second when Givens walked. He scored on Frank Moore's hit to centre, while Givens was caught at the plate.

In the third inning the Eagles went into the lead. Ross got to first on an error while Smith smashed a single to error while Easter doubled to score. Ross and Smith came home on an error. In the fourth and fifth innings the Eagles added three more runs while the Old-timers were held scoreless, although they had several men on the base.

Joe Smith pitched for the Eagles, allowing six hits while he struck out seven. Lefty Zaccarelli made his first appearance on the mound for sometime and pitched a fair brand of ball for the Old-timers. He was touched up for nine hits, struck out two and walked three.

A NICE CATCH
One of the features of the game was the one-handed catch made by Bob Whyte in the second inning of Smith's line drive.

Babe Ruth's seventh home run of the season was the most resounding blow struck by any member of the "Big Six" yesterday. Ruth got no other hits but the homer not only won the game for the Yanks but also added four points to the Babe's average. The big slugger gained a hit on Paul Waner, who fell back a point.

Tracy took an active part in the batting spree of the Athletics, getting three safeties and boosting his mark to .355. In so doing he broke a tie which previously had existed with Hornsby for third place. Hornsby got two out of four as the Braves defeated Cincinnati.

Harry Heilmann added two hits to his mounting average, which now is .479.

Varsity Hoopsters Defeat Toronto "Y" in Close Game

Toronto, May 11.—Playing superbly with a strong defence backed up by a brilliant passing attack, the University of British Columbia basketball team, champions of Western Canada, and the winners of the Windsor Collegiate alumni team for the Canadian senior men's title, swept through to an exciting 30-29 victory over Toronto West End Y here to-night in an exhibition contest.

The game was an exceedingly fast one, and a large crowd saw the west-enders come from behind and nose the "Y" out. The latter led at half time, 15-11, but were unable to cope with the speed and clever passing of the visitors in the latter part of the game.

BAR NONE GIVES STABLE A BOOST

Three-year-old Steps Six Furlongs in Fast Time at Louisville

Louisville, Ky., May 11.—Bar None gave the derby hopes of the Long Ride Stable a boost yesterday by stepping six furlongs in 1:13 1/5 to win the $100,000 "Blomfield" purse for maiden three-year-olds and up.

After a good training season the promising son of Eternal-Venice showed stamina and courage in winning the feature race of the afternoon card at Churchill Downs. Out of the running until after he had passed the half-mile post, the derby colt moved up fast and a burst of speed down the stretch put him under the wire a length and a half ahead of Keaton.

Three other derby eligibles made the race but failed to finish in the money. R. S. Clark's Dark Eagle, considered one of the dark horses for the derby classic, made a rather disappointing showing. A. B. Gordon's Reproduction and Milling-Son, from the stable of G. M. Burton, also were far back.

New York, May 11.—Filinico's feature yesterday, the Spring Juvenile Stakes for two-year-olds, $5,000 added, went to W. J. Salmon's Dunkirk in a close finish. Chislight of the Nevada Stable was second, and Single Stop, half brother of Singlefoot and half brother of Canter, third. Chislight made the pace and was just beaten out at the finish by Dunkirk. Single Stop, making his racing debut, showed good form.

A furious finish in the Spring Handicap, $2,500 added, at Jamaica, saw the Rancocas Stable's Mowee, with Laverne Pace up, the winner by a nose, from T. M. Cassidy's Indian Scout, an added starter. The three-year-old son of Lucullite and Epinglette closed fast to catch Indian Scout at the finish line. Polidor was third. The time for the six furlongs was 1:12.

WESTHOLMES TO MEET CLUBMEN

Commercial League Ball Teams Play To-day; Tilliums Need Victory

Tilliums and Westholmes will provide the competition in the Commercial League baseball game at the Royal Athletic Park to-night. The teams will start playing at 6:15 o'clock.

Pete Campbell, the clubmen's south-paw chucker, will be on the mound for them, while Pollard is expected to pitch for the Westholmes.

The Tilliums need a win badly as to date they have played two games and lost both of them. Their opponents have won two straight and are leading the league.

Competition is keen in the Commercial League this season. The three teams are fairly well matched and many good games are looked for before the championship is decided.

Road Cyclists Plan Week-end Races

Officials of the Island Road Cycle Club last week-end mapped out a course for a fifty-mile time trial which it is proposed to run some time in August. Further details regarding this and other road events will be published shortly.

The first official run of the newly-formed club will take place on Saturday at 2:30 p.m., the destination being Goldstream.

On Sunday the club will journey to Deep Cove.

The meeting place for both rides will be at the corner of Hillside and Douglas Streets.

Any interested cyclist will be given a hearty welcome.

Runs will be arranged each Saturday and Sunday throughout the season.

What's Best For A Bad Stomach?

Nearly all stomach troubles—indigestion, sourness, gas, bloating and pain are caused by "too much acid" in the stomach.

Artificial digestants are not needed and may prove harmful. Neutralize the Stomach Acid, sweeten the stomach and then pain, sourness and gas will stop and your food will digest properly and naturally.

From the nearest drug store get a little Bisulphate of Magnesia—either powder or tablets. Do not confuse with Epsom, Citrate of Magnesia or Milk Magnesia. These are not the same. Bisulphate of Magnesia, especially prepared for neutralizing acid stomachs, is a healthy, healthy natural digestion. For quick positive relief from Acid Stomach troubles.

MOST PEOPLE PREFER BISULPHATE OF MAGNESIA

"My dear Emily, why do you insist on going about with another woman's hair on your head?" said Mr. Pomonoby to his wife.

"My dear, why do you go about with another sheep's wool on your back?" responded the lady.

TECHNICAL KNOCKOUTS FEATURES

Five Bouts in B.C. Boxing Championships Are Stopped By Referee

Hall of Victoria Puts His Man on Ropes; Hawks, Local Boy, Beaten

New Westminster, May 11.—Five technical knockouts featured the first night's performance of the provincial boxing and wrestling championships at the Queen's Park Arena when some fine milling was enjoyed by a crowd of 500 fans. The finals are to be staged to-night.

Joe Callum, hard-hitting fireman, of Victoria, was much in the limelight, and disposed of R. F. Young, of Sicamous, in the second round of the 160-pound class and followed up this success in the 175-pound event by administering a licking to Norman Frost, the much-touted Chilliwack youth, who retired in the second round with a broken nose and the loss of much more.

Bud Anderson, Pender Alley A.C., gave Orr Campbell, of Chilliwack, a battle for a round and a half in the 112-pound class, but finally was routed by some stinging blows and the judges were unanimous for Campbell.

Walter Ledrew, Firemen's A.C., proved to be too shifty for W. R. Houghton, Powell River, at 135 pounds, and Referee Gil Martin stopped the fight in the third round when the papermaker got into difficulties.

WON SLUGGING MATCH

A real slugging match featured the 160-pound battle between Jack Gray, Chilliwack, and F. C. Hall, of the 16th Canadian Scottish, of Victoria. Hall scored a knock-down in the first round and had his man hanging on the ropes in the second frame when Martin saved Gray from further punishment. Jimmy Reardon, of the V.A.C., took the decision in the 147-pound class from Peter Murie, of Firemen's A.C., after a fast bout.

Bert Price, Firemen's A.C., punished Robert Hawks, of the 16th Canadian Scottish, so severely that Referee Martin stopped the bout in the second round.

George Ainsworth, Dominion champion, defaulted to Harry Marshall, V.A.C., in the 126-pound class and to James Gist, of the Cavalry A.C., in 118-pound division. Ainsworth's actions were due to an injury received while playing soccer. Jack Sweetney, of Powell River, entered the finals in the 147-pound class when Jack Hutchison, of Firemen's A.C., was unable to go on.

Charlie Storck, of the 16th Canadian Scottish, Victoria, vs. Joe Callum, Victoria.

175 pounds—Joe Callum, Victoria vs. Charlie Storck, 16th Canadian Scottish, Victoria.

Heavyweight—R. C. Mawhood, 16th Canadian Scottish vs. Joe Callum, Victoria.

PROVINCIAL KING'S DAUGHTERS WILL MEET NEXT WEEK

New Westminster Gathering to Discuss Proposed Mortgage on Duncan Hospital

Mrs. L. H. Hardie, of Victoria, provincial president, will preside at the twenty-seventh annual convention of the King's Daughters, which is to be held in Olivet Baptist Church, New Westminster, on Thursday and Friday next, May 17 and 18. Among the delegates who will attend from Victoria are: Mrs. Hardie, Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. R. R. Watson, Mrs. McElfrish, Mrs. Chas. Gardiner, Mrs. A. T. Harvey, Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. E. J. Perry, Mrs. A. A. Campbell, Mrs. Helen Thain, Mrs. Kathleen Roberts and Miss Amy Cony.

Those from Duncan will be Miss E. Wilson, Mrs. W. H. Elkington, Mrs. J. H. Whitmore, Mrs. Jaynes, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Stock and Miss Kathleen McDonald.

HOSPITAL MORTGAGE

Among the important matters to be discussed is the following resolution from the Scattered Circle, Cowichan: "The Board of Management of the King's Daughters' Hospital is faced with the problem of providing immediately increased accommodation for the care and housing of patients and of more room for the nurses. As a preliminary to negotiate a mortgage is only legally granted at the annual convention of the order, and as delay is a serious handicap to the said institution, the board respectfully requests that the necessary authority should be granted to them to raise a sum of money on the present property for the necessary buildings."

INTERNATIONAL RALLY

Delegates will also be appointed at this meeting to represent the provincial circles at the Dominion convention to be held in Ottawa on June 11 to 13, and the ninth international convention in the same city on June 13 to 18.

This will be the first time on which the international convention has been held in Canada, such gatherings having been held hitherto in the United States.

In connection with the international rally, Lady Willingdon will entertain the delegates at a reception and tea at Rideau Hall on Saturday, June 16.

VICAR'S "DON'TS" FOR BRIDEGROOMS

Amusing Advice to Would-be Battersea Benedicts

London, May 11.—The Vicar of St. Philip's Church is not altogether satisfied with the deportment and responsibilities of bridegrooms in his Battersea district. In his magazine, he gives the following tips to prospective bridegrooms:

"Don't rush at the blushing bride when she joins you at the chancel steps and shake hands with her. One bridegroom did this at a recent wedding and exclaimed: 'Oh, my, my, my! When the priest tells you to say after him 'God's holy ordinance,' don't say 'God's holy ordinance.' Some of the audience we have seen recent weddings here could never by any stretch of imagination be called holy."

"It is always best to refrain from drinking anything stronger than tea before the ceremony. The smell of alcohol is rather objectionable and especially in churchmen asks you to say 'Trough' please don't say 'Trough.' The former means faith, fidelity and truth; the latter anything hollow and open longitudinally on the upper side."

Authors Hear Talk On Life and Work Of Ernest Dowson

At the May meeting of the Victoria and Islands Branch Canadian Authors' Association held last evening in the library of Victoria College, Craigdarroch, a communication from headquarters regarding delegates to the annual convention of the association to be held in Calgary in July was read and members likely to attend were asked to give their names to the secretary, Mrs. E. B. McEwen, at the earliest possible moment.

Special information will be given any who wishes to attend the sessions.

It was decided that a meeting of the association would be arranged in June for the purpose of visiting Mrs. Maude McVicker, an out-of-town member, at her home in Metcalfe.

Miss Edith M. Dowson Bell addressed the association in a most entertaining manner on the life and work of the late Ernest Dowson, poet, essay writer and novelist and short story writer, whose work is being more highly appreciated in recent years than during his brief lifetime. Ernest Dowson was a contemporary of Francis Thompson, and Verlaine, and quite in their class. He lived but thirty-five years, dying of tuberculosis in 1890. When he entered Oxford University he became the companion of Oscar Wilde and the brilliant set of which he was leader. Addicted to drugs he then led a wandering life for some years, living for the greater part of the time in Brittany, where he devoted himself to writing and translating the works of well-known French authors. His "Villanelle of the Lady's Dresses," "In Pensive Ultima," and extracts from other beautiful poems, Miss Bell described charmingly. The Poetry Book Shop of Harold Monro, a poet's club and reading-room, in Bloomsbury, where readings from the poets were held every Tuesday evening amid most ideal surroundings. Miss Bell was warmly applauded. The address, Alfred Carmichael, the president.

SOME DANGERS OF VACATION

RESORTS

We are tempted to talk a lot about vacations simply because our mail contains so many references to "going away" this summer. The chief problem always in the selection of a vacation site is the all-important one of water and milk. In selecting a camp for your boy or girl, you cannot be too rigid in your requirements. The water supply must be good and that the children will have good milk. Sometimes these matters are overlooked in the more flashy interests of horseback riding and the like.

For the baby, the necessity of having good water and milk is all that matters. Any vacation spot is a good one which is cool and which keeps these essentials in mind.

Vacationists who travel from place to place by motor cannot make use of a changing milk supply. However good the milk or water may be, the constant change from one kind of milk to another would be bound to offer difficulties. The use of either powdered, whole milk, or canned evaporated milk does away with this problem. Water of boiled water to either of these milks can always be boiled, and the addition makes a good and acceptable food for the infant. If he is given these milks a week or more in advance of starting on the journey, the mother will learn the method of preparation and the baby will not be upset by them on the trip.

Being one of those mothers who preferred my own home always during the hot season, I am rather weak on the necessities for such auto travel. Perhaps no one other article strikes me as so absolutely essential as a covering for the baby to protect him from the bites of insects. Whatever else one has along, a mosquito netting of generous proportions should be included. The irritation of bites, not to mention the dangers of infection, is no small thing for a baby to overcome, and certainly does not enter on a vacation in order to wrestle with avoidable ailments.

To go back to the first warning. In selecting a home for the summer, the wisest policy one can follow is the precautionary one. Have the water supply tested. A well may be a picturesque but dangerously polluted possession. Find out before you arrive if it is safe water to drink. Find out if the water in which the children bathe is uncontaminated by sewage. Look up your milk supply and make sure of it before you move. We sound very like the knell of doom; but these are serious warnings, and now is the time, if ever, to utter them.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES—It's Just Too Bad

—By MARTIN

The "CANARY" MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE
Author of "The Benson Murder Case"

"Markham, dear, I'm absorbing atmosphere. I'm attuning my soul to the apartment's vibrations. Do let me attune in peace. I may have a visitation at any moment—a revelation from Sinai, as it were."

He continued his round of investigation, and at last passed out into the main hall, where he stood, one foot holding open the door, looking about him with curious intentness. Which he glanced to the living-room, he sat down on the edge of the rosewood table and surrendered himself to gloomy contemplation. After several minutes he gave Markham a sardonic grin.

"I say! This is a problem. Dash it all, it's uncanny!"

"I had an idea," scoffed Markham. "That sooner or later you'd revise your deductions in regard to Spotswood." Vance stared idly at the ceiling.

"You're devilish stubborn, don't you know. Here I am trying to extricate you from a damned unpleasant predicament, and all you do is to indulge in caustic observations calculated to damp my youthful ardor."

Markham left the window and seated himself on the arm of the davenport facing Vance. His eyes held a worried look.

"Vance, don't get me wrong. Spotswood means nothing in my life. If he did this thing, I'd like to know it. Unless this case is cleared up, I'm in for an ungodly wallop by the newspapers. It's not to my interest to discourage any possibility of a solution. But your conclusion about Spotswood is impossible. There are too many contradictory facts."

"That's just it, don't you know. The contradictory indications are far too perfect. They fit together too beautifully. They're almost as fine as the forms in a Michelangelo statue. They're too carefully co-ordinated, d'ye see, to have been merely a haphazard concatenation of circumstances. They signify conscious design."

Markham rose, and slowly returning to the window, stood looking out into the little rear yard.

"If I could grant your premise that Spotswood killed the girl," he said, "I could follow your syllogism. But I can't very well convict a man on the grounds that his defence is too perfect."

"What we need, Markham, is inspiration. The mere contortions of the sibil are not enough." Vance took a turn up and down the room. "What really infuriates me is that I've been outwitted. And by a manufacturer of automobile accessories!... It's most humiliating!"

He sat down at the piano and played the opening bars of Brahms' Capriccio No. 1.

"Needs tuning," he muttered; and, sauntering to the Boulé cabinet, he ran his finger over the marquetry. "Pretty and all that," he said, "but a bit fuzzy. Good example, though. The deceased's aunt from Seattle should get a very fair price for it."

He regarded a pendant grandiose at the side of the cabinet. "Rather nice, that, if the original candles hadn't been supplanted with modern frosted bulbs."

He paused before the little china clock on the mantel. "Gingerbread. I'm sure it kept atrocious time." Passing on to the escritoire, he examined it critically. "Imitation French Renaissance. But rather dainty, what?" Then his eye fell on the waste-paper basket, and he picked it up. "Silly idea," he commented, "—making a basket out of vellum. The artistic triumph of some lady interior decorator. I'll wager. Enough vellum here to bind a set of Epictetus. But why ruin the effect with hand-painted partridges? The aesthetic instinct has not as yet invaded these fair States—decidedly not."

Setting the basket down, he studied it meditatively for a moment. Then he leaned over and took from it the piece of crumpled wrapping-paper to which he had referred the previous day.

"This doubtless contained the lady's last purchase on earth," he mused. "Very touching! Are you sentimental about such trifles, Markham? Anyway, the purple string found it was a godsend to Skeel. What knick-knack, do you suppose, paved the way for the frantic Tony's escape?"

He opened the paper, revealing a broken piece of corrugated cardboard and a large, square, dark-brown envelope.

"Ah, to be sure! Phonograph records," he glanced about the apartment. "But I say, where did the lady keep the 'bally machine'?"

"You'll find it in the foyer," said Markham wearily, without turning. He knew that Vance's chatter was only the outward manifestation of serious and perplexed thinking; and he was waiting with what patience he could muster.

Vance sauntered idly through the glass doors into the little reception hall, and stood gazing abstractedly at a console photograph of Chinese Chipendale design which stood against the wall at one end. The squat cabinet was partly covered with a prayer-rug, and upon it sat a polished, bronze flower bowl.

"At any rate, it doesn't look phonographic," he remarked. "But why the prayer-rug?"

"He seemed to call a Cuesan for sale purposes. Not very valuable—too much on the Oushak type. Wonder what the lady's taste in music was. Victor Herbert, doubtless."

He turned back the rug and lifted the lid of the cabinet. There was a record already on the machine, and he leaned over and looked at it.

"My word! The Andante from Beethoven's C-Minor Symphony!" he exclaimed cheerfully. "He seemed to know the music."

"Of course, Markham. The most perfect Andante ever written. I think a little good music might clear the atmosphere and volatilize our perturbation, what?"

Vance started the motor, and placing the needle on the record, returned to the living-room. He stood staring at the davenport, concentrating on the problem in hand. I sat in the wicker chair by the door waiting for the music. The situation was getting on my nerves, and I began to feel fidgety. A minute or two passed, but the only sound which came from the phonograph was a faint scratching. Vance looked up with mild curiosity, and walked back to the machine. Inspecting it curiously, he once more set it in operation. But though he waited several minutes, no music came forth.

"I say! That's deuced queer, y'know," he grumbled, as he changed the needle and rewound the motor.

Markham had now left the window, and stood watching him with good-natured tolerance. The turn-table of the phonograph was spinning, and the needle was tracing its concentric revolutions; but still the instrument refused to play. Vance, with both hands on the cabinet, was leaning forward, his eyes fixed on the silently revolving record with an expression of amused bewilderment.

"The sound box is probably broken," he said. "Silly machines, anyway."

"The difficulty, I imagine," Markham chided him, "lies in your patrician ignorance of so vulgar and democratic a mechanism—Permit me to assist you."

He moved to Vance's side, and I stood looking curiously over his shoulder. Everything appeared to be in order, and the needle had now almost reached the end of the record. But only a faint scratching was audible.

Markham stretched forth his hand to lift the sound box. But his movement was never completed.

At that moment the little apartment was filled with several terrifying treble screams, followed by two shrill calls for help. A cold chill swept my body, and there was a tingling at the roots of my hair.

CHAPTER LII.

After a short silence, during which the three of us remained speechless, the same feminine voice said in a loud, distinct tone: "No, nothing is the matter. I'm sorry. Everything is all right. Please go home, and don't worry."

The record had come to the end of the record. There was a slight click, and the automatic device shut off the motor. The almost terrifying silence that followed was broken by a sardonic chuckle from Vance.

"Well, old dear," he remarked languidly, as he strolled back into the living-room, "so much for your irrefutable facts!"

There came a loud knocking on the door and the officer on duty outside looked in with a startled face.

"It's all right," Markham informed him in a husky voice. "I'll call you when I want you."

Vance lay down on the davenport and took out another cigarette. Having lighted it, he leaned back and stared far over his head and extended his legs like a man in whom a powerful physical tension had suddenly relaxed.

"Ton my soul, Markham, we've all been babes in the woods," he drawled. "An incontrovertible alibi—my word! If the law supposes that, as Mr. Bum-bly said, the law is a ass, a idiot. Oh, Sammy, Sammy, y'worn't there a al-leyb! Markham, I blush to admit it, but it's you and I who've been the unutterable asses."

Markham had been standing by the instrument like a man dazed, his eyes riveted hypnotically on the telltale record. Slowly he came into the room and threw himself wearily into a chair.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Periwinkle

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By HOWARD E. GARIS)

"Oh, here you are," squeaked the Lady Mouse Teacher in the Hollow Stump School as Uncle Wiggily hopped into the room, followed by Jingle and Jangle. "Why are you late?"

"Daddicums isn't late. He doesn't have to come to school," said Jangle. "Jingle couldn't talk very well on account of her tongue being swelled because she ate too much smartly, biting sagasfras root."

"I know Uncle Wiggily doesn't need to come to school," said the Lady Mouse Teacher kindly. "Though we are always glad to see him. But you two little rabbits are quite late, and she looked at the Hickory Dickory Dock Clock on the wall. 'Why is it?'"

Jingle and Jangle hung their little pink noses in shame. They had tried to play truant and stay away from school, as I told you in the story last night. But Uncle Wiggily had followed and found them gathering pretty shells on the bank of the brook.

"But Jingle cried 'cause her tongue burned," confessed Jangle, "and Daddicums took a piece of chalk and drew the pictures. And the little bunny boys and girls were so smart that they guessed, almost at once, that

"Dear Lady Mouse Teacher," said Uncle Wiggily, "I made her a funny puzzle picture and we both laughed."

"Well, then I shall forgive you for trying to run away from school," squeaked the Lady Mouse, "but you must show us on the blackboard, the puzzle pictures Uncle Wiggily drew in the sand."

"I know Uncle Wiggily doesn't need to come to school," said the Lady Mouse Teacher. "Why we haven't any such class in our school, Uncle Wiggily. What is a periwinkle, anyhow?"

"A periwinkle, dear Lady Mouse Teacher," said Mr. Longears, "is a little creature like a clam or an oyster, only much more cute. A periwinkle lives in a pretty shell house near the water. It is true you have no periwinkle class, but I am going to start one now. Let's all go outdoors and look for periwinkles on the banks of the brook."

"A very good idea," said Miss Mouse. "Come, children, Periwinkle class!"

"Hurrah!" cried the animal boys and girls happily.

"If periwinkles are like a clam or oyster they might pinch with their shells," said Baby Bunty, cautious like.

the tongs were for carrying ice, and not water, though ice is water that has been frozen into a solid block. And they knew the rake wasn't used for scrubbing floors, nor the brush for carrying ice."

So the puzzle mistakes were quickly corrected and Jingle and Jangle took their seats. Miss Mouse gave Jingle some cold cream to put on her burning tongue, which made it feel better. And Uncle Wiggily stayed in school.

Oh, no, Uncle Wiggily didn't stay to study his lessons, but he liked to sit in class and hear the animal boys and girls recite to the Lady Mouse Teacher.

But after a while the dear old rabbit gentleman saw that the little pupils were getting rather tired and sleepy, for it was a fine, warm, sunny day with bees humming in the flowers outside.

"Dear Lady Mouse Teacher," said Uncle Wiggily suddenly, "don't you think it is time for the periwinkle class to say their lessons?"

"The periwinkle class," squeaked Miss Mouse. "Why we haven't any such class in our school, Uncle Wiggily. What is a periwinkle, anyhow?"

"A periwinkle, dear Lady Mouse Teacher," said Mr. Longears, "is a little creature like a clam or an oyster, only much more cute. A periwinkle lives in a pretty shell house near the water. It is true you have no periwinkle class, but I am going to start one now. Let's all go outdoors and look for periwinkles on the banks of the brook."

"No! No!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "Periwinkles won't bite!"

So the rabbit gentleman, the Lady Mouse and all the children went out to look for periwinkles near where Baby Bunty had found the other pretty shells. And all of a sudden, as Miss Mouse stooped down to pick up a large, red shell, she gave a scream.

"What's the matter?" cried Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, there's a very large periwinkle here!" squeaked Miss Mouse. "And when I put my paw in its open shell he bit me."

"Please, ma'am, excuse me! I didn't mean to," said the periwinkle. "It was all a mistake on my part. What can I do to show how sorry I am?"

"Draw a puzzle picture like Uncle Wiggily does," said Baby Bunty quickly, as Miss Mouse rubbed her sore paw. So in the wet sand the periwinkle made a picture of four bushes. Sticking above the bush tops were four hats.

"See if you can guess who are under the hats," said the periwinkle.

And if the kitchen sink doesn't run upstairs and try to sleep all night in the bathtub, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's Saturday school.

God has given each person a name now that denotes his particular disposition, and some of those names wouldn't be very complimentary I am sure. The great scholars and educators have been trying to devise means whereby they might be able to train men with disreputable characters into valuable citizens, but so far have made very little progress. But when a person accepts Christ his character is made over into a wonderful disposition in a second of time. Christianity is the greatest power in the world for the betterment of human character."

GIVING THE FIREMAN HIS DUE
By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.
First came the brushwood, furnace cranking over cobblestones, sparks flying from its smoking chimney and from the feet of its three milk-white horses.

Next, the hose-cart. Then came the hook-and-ladder, swaying perilously as it turned the corner. They, too, were drawn by snowy steeds.

At the head of the adventurous procession rode Chief Crow in his buggy; at the rear, a half a hundred children. Over all the uproar could be heard the ominous toll of the big fire-bell.

Then and now I have loved a fireman. The picturesque pageant has changed somewhat, but the firemen are the same. I wonder if we give these friends of the people their due.

Not only are they willing and ready, like the sentinel at the gate, to protect the people from disaster, but in their unoccupied moments they are helping in other ways that few people know about, in roles of good Samaritans.

If you have clothes or other things to give away, and do not know of a needy family, go to your nearest fire station. Every fireman in town knows of people who need help. What is more, nothing will please him so much as to be of use.

Taxpayers who see firemen sitting idly in the sun are apt to criticize them. They do not stop to think that a soldier cannot be fighting every minute of the day. By the same token neither can a fireman be fighting a fire.

But when occasion rises, no matter how bitter the weather, he is there, ready to offer his life in your service. In the meantime he is doing more good

NEW FOREST SERVICE STATIONS ON ISLAND

In view of the greatly increased logging activity in the Comox and Campbell River districts, which calls for increased supervision by the B.C. Forest Service, a field headquarters is being established at Campbell River. It was announced today by P. Z. Caverhill, chief forester. The contract for the construction has been let to T. A. Morris.

The station will consist of two modern bungalows, a combination office and garage building and a power house. Electric light, water and sewage systems are being installed. Provision is being made through combined gravity and automatic pressure for a supply of water for protection from fire. An up-to-date wireless telephone broadcasting and receiving sets will be located here to maintain contact with similar sets carried by six of the Forest Service patrol launches and the ranger station at Thurston Bay. Wireless telephony has been in use by the Forest Service since 1921 and has proved to be an important, if not indispensable feature of the communication facilities, between shore and boat patrols where ordinary telephone or telegraph cannot be used.

The personnel at Campbell River will consist of the district supervisor, forest ranger and wireless operator. The new station will be conveniently situated in regard to the launch building station at Thurston Bay. The buildings stand on the Island Highway as one approaches Campbell River. "Tomahawk" siding is being used in the construction, similar to the log cabin, and giving an exceedingly appropriate appearance for the particular picturesque spot.

Further progress is shown in the way of fire detection by the erection of lookout stations on Mount Sheppard in the Sooke district, on Mount Becher on Courtenay, on Texada Island and on Sonora Island. From these points a vast extent of territory is visible, and by means of this system of lookout stations it is hoped to detect any forest fires while they are small, which will give the control crews a chance to control them more effectively than heretofore. The general public is being fast awakened to fire consciousness through the vigorous co-operation of the press and steady volumes of propaganda issued by the Forest Service, whose ideal of smokeless summers, it is hoped, will by-and-by be realized.

All who believe in encouraging the young people to have artistic interests are invited to spend that evening in the school auditorium. Special characteristic numbers are "The Volga Boatmen's Song" and "The Night Wind." Fred Waddington and G. H. E. Green are the conductors of the choir and orchestra respectively, while Miss Dorothy Morton will be the accompanist.

The necessity for securing building permits for all work over a nominal value is drawn to the attention of the public in a letter from the Zoning Board of Appeal to the City Council, which will go before the council at its regular meeting on Monday. "There has been considerable work done in the past few years in the way of securing building permits for all work over a nominal value, and in cases where the actual construction planned was contrary to regulations, the City Council has build should consult city building officials early in their plans, it is urged, and in any event before work is started on the ground."

AIR DEVELOPMENT INTERESTS NORTH

M. P. McCaffery Plans Aerial Demonstration For Prince Rupert Fair This Year

Prince Rupert, British Columbia's northern terminus has become greatly interested in recent developments of the air and its citizens are desirous of witnessing some flying stunts by the latest types of aeroplane.

M. P. McCaffery, former mayor of Prince Rupert, who was in the city yesterday with J. H. Pillsbury, declares that the people of the northern city are keenly interested in flying and would welcome a visit by planes for demonstration purposes.

As manager of the Prince Rupert fair, which opens September 11, Mr. McCaffery plans to include an aerial exhibition to give punch to the annual exposition, and before returning home will endeavor to arrange for the visit of a couple of planes in the fall.

"The new developments that have taken place in the air have attracted world-wide attention, and an aerial demonstration at the Prince Rupert fair would prove an excellent attraction," said Mr. McCaffery, before leaving here for the mainland.

"Our exhibition is one of the finest going to make it more attractive than ever," he said. Music for the Prince Rupert fair will be provided by four native Indian bands, a feature that cannot be duplicated by any other city in British Columbia.

While in the city this week, Messrs. McCaffery and Pillsbury were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Tremayne, of William Head.

Dr. Tremayne was recently transferred from Prince Rupert to the quarantine station here.

"SAL-ADA" TEA

An old Southern planter was discussing the hereafter with one of his colored servants. "Sam," he said, "if you die first, I want you to come back and tell me what it's like over there. If I die first, I'll come back and tell you what it's like."

"Dat suits me, massa," replied the old negro, "but if you dies first, Ah wants you to promise me dat you'll come back in de daytime."

LIQUOR BILL IS APPROVED

Senate Votes Measure Giving Provinces of Canada Sole Right to Import

Ottawa, May 11.—The Senate yesterday adopted with an amendment the bill governing interprovincial and international traffic in liquor. Under the amendment, which will now go to the Commons for approval, the penalties for violations are changed. For the first offence, a fine of not more than $300 or three months in default; for the second offence a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, and in default imprisonment for not less than three months and not more than six months. For subsequent violations, imprisonment for not less than six months and not more than twelve months.

Senator Dandurand, Government leader in the Senate, who presented the amendment, remarked he thought it would be satisfactory to the provinces.

ANTI-WAR PACT PLAN ADVANCED

London, May 11.—The British Government, Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, announced in the Commons yesterday, desires to co-operate with the United States Government in outlawing war. The Secretary was speaking on the Kellogg proposal.

Sir Austen said he would proceed in the ordinary diplomatic channels in treating the proposal, although he had at first favored submitting the matter to a conference of international jurists, as in the case of the Locarno Pact.

This idea was dropped, however, he explained, when one of the governments concerned—understood to be the United States—indicated it did not approve that method.

ATTITUDE OF DOMINIONS

A statement of the British attitude, the Foreign Secretary continued, had already been forwarded to the governments of the Dominions in order that all elements of the Empire might seek a common position toward the proposal. He expected to transmit the reply to Secretary of State Kellogg soon after the responses of the Dominions were received.

MACDONALD'S OPINION

Ex-Premier Ramsay MacDonald said his reaction had been that the proposal was ridiculous. In view of the complicated nature of the problems and the simplicity of the Kellogg scheme. Later, however, he had become convinced the plan was bound to be a forward step in the battle for peace. Its realization, he said, would make it impossible for nations to threaten war and thus prevent sowing the seeds of war.

LYND GEORGE SPEAKS

Ex-Premier Lynd George was another who argued there would be no point in making reservations to the United States proposals.

Such a declaration outlawing war would have a moral value, especially from the consideration, he said, that the United States was the only country which had increased its army and navy in comparison with its pre-war standing.

He believed that if war were outlawed there would be no difficulty arranging the cruiser strength of nations, which had been the stumbling point in the last disarmament conference.

He also made objection to Britain appearing to come behind France in supporting the proposals because France had many dangerous obligations in Europe, while Britain had none.

NEW MIGRATION TESTS SUCCEED

Examinations By Canadian Physicians in Britain Best System, Says Official

Ottawa, May 11.—Canada's new medical inspection system of immigrants was adopted to check the flow of feeble-minded and potentially insane immigrants to the Dominion. In making this statement at yesterday's session of the Commons committee on immigration, Dr. D. A. Clark, Assistant Deputy Minister of Health, said instances had been found where British physicians had "shaded" medical reports of their patients who desired to migrate to Canada.

Lack of understanding of Canadian conditions on the part of resident physicians, Dr. Clark continued, had been responsible for undesirables being medically approved for passage to this country.

The new plan of inspection by Canadian physicians at British ports, he declared, was working satisfactorily.

THREE BROTHERS IN POLICE COURT

Tisdale, Sask., May 11.—Three brothers appeared for preliminary hearing in police court here yesterday on a charge of complicity in the death of their father.

They are Robert, Alfred and Henry Day of Bjorkdale, Sask., and they are standing preliminary hearing in connection with the alleged murder of their father, Captain Allison Day, who mysteriously disappeared in October, 1925.

The trial is being heard here before Provincial Magistrate Lusser of Prince Albert.

One of the features of the hearing yesterday was the statement of pretty Caroline Day, their fourteen-year-old sister, who said her mother, now dead, had told her "she had shot Dad and had burned the body."

The girl's story of a life of misery lived by her mother through the persistent cruelty of the father.

Previous to the evidence of the girl, Max Simpson, a young farmer of the Bjorkdale district, said the youngest of the brothers had told him that "Ma plugged old Dad."

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

Winnipeg, May 11.—Wheat—Wheat market was mostly quiet and somewhat nervous to-day, trade being generally small. Opening prices were slightly higher, but during the first hour the market eased off, prices falling 1/4 to 1/2 under the previous choice with buying power thin.

Later in the day seaboard houses were buying, which took the slack out of the market and prices reacted, gradually climbing to about 1 1/2 over last night's close. The recovery from the early decline in Chicago was also a helpful feature. Seaboard estimated export sales over night at 1,000,000 bushels of Manitoba, but there was no evidence of this business locally, as the cash market was all grades being dull, the demand for all grades being very poor, and spreads were 1/4 to 1/2 lower. There was report that No. 3 northern at Buffalo was being offered at 10 per bushel under the cost of replacement.

Scattered rains were reported from the southwest, but dry conditions continued over Spring wheat territory. Canadian wheat seedling is approximately completed under very favorable conditions, the weather having been almost ideal for the past two weeks. There is ample moisture for the time being in most areas of the three western provinces, but showers will shortly be welcomed on the light lands, where surface conditions are becoming dry owing to strong winds that have prevailed.

CANADIAN MILL GETS LARGEST MACHINES

Chicago, May 11.—Newsprint machines, which will be the largest in use, will be installed in a new mill now being constructed by the Great Lakes Paper Company Limited, it was announced in connection with the public offering of $10,000,000 of the company's first mortgage sinking fund six per cent bonds, due March 1, 1930. The issue is being offered in Canada by Halsey, Stuart & Company, Wood, Clardy & Company Limited and The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, at 100 and interest.

The new newsprint mill, which is being built at Fort William, Ont., will have a capacity of 100,000 tons annually. The first units are scheduled to be in operation this month and the second in May, 1929. An addition to its ground pulp mill, a sulphite mill, looks for water shipments via the Great Lakes, and railroad and plant terminals are also being constructed.

The company will be wholly owned through ownership of all outstanding stock, except directors' qualifying shares, by the Backus-Brooks Company of Minneapolis, which also owns over eighty-five per cent of all the outstanding capital stock of the Minnesota and Ontario Paper Company. The Backus-Brooks Company also owns a number of other subsidiaries and this group of companies is among the leaders in the newsprint field. The group also owns and operates large hydro-electric power plants, saw mills, box factories, etc.

These bonds will be secured by a direct first lien on all the physical property of the company now owned, and by a direct or collateral first lien on all such property hereafter acquired by the company, or owned by its principal subsidiaries, if any. The company's balance sheet, as of December 31, 1927, giving effect to the present financing and transactions incident thereto, and with timber and pulpwood units recorded at less than appraised value, discloses net tangible assets, after deducting all liabilities—except these bonds, of $29,388,124.

Boarder: "No; it was the chicken she missed."

SEATTLE EXCHANGES MERGE TO ARRANGE FOR B.C. STOCKS

Seattle, May 11.—In preparation for the handling of British Columbia mining and other securities here, the Seattle Board of Stock Exchange today to form an exchange with a combined membership of ninety-four. The merger was unanimously ratified by the memberships yesterday afternoon.

As a subsidiary, a secondary exchange, to be called the Mining Exchange, or the Curb Market, is organized. A number of the chief Vancouver firms are establishing offices here. General R. P. Clark has been here already opening an office on Second Avenue. Miller, Court & Company are reported to have made arrangements here.

JULIAN TO SPEND MILLION IN B.C.

Vancouver, May 11.—"My plans call for the expenditure of over $1,000,000 in mining in British Columbia during 1928," said C. C. Julian, head of the company which is developing the Cascade Consolidated mines.

"I have not been connected with the oil industry since 1925, and it was as much a surprise to me as to anybody to see that the company which bears my name was in difficulties last year. My interests are solely concerned with mining, and my attention is being called to British Columbia by the wonderful opportunities offered there."

His engineers have mapped out a development plan for Cascade Consolidated calling for mill construction and ore production within the shortest possible time was pointed out by Mr. Julian. Ore values and great reserves on Cascade Consolidated render the property one of the most attractive in the West. Mr. Julian's engineers have reported.

Ms. Princess Kathleen takes an excursion to Seattle Saturday, May 12, leaving at 9 a.m.

PEND ORELLE ARE NOT LIKELY TO COME TO B.C.

Mining interests can see a battle coming between lead-zinc operators in United States and Canada. The Financial Post says. This is suggested by the entry of Hunter Hill Sullivan into Sudbury through its subsidiary, Trendwell-Yukon and the possible entry of Consolidated Mining and Smelting interests into the United States by securing control either direct or with Anaconda Copper of Pend Oreille lead and zinc property in the State of Washington.

Sidney Norman, an old newspaper man and mine operator of the Sloane and Cosur d'Alema, who is well posted on operations in that section, writes in an interesting way on the possibilities of interesting developments in this situation. He suggests that Pend Oreille, if it is all that is claimed, will ultimately be taken over by a new company controlled jointly by Smelters and Anaconda Copper.

After pointing out that marketing troubles might prevent treatment of Pend Oreille ore at Trail, Mr. Norman says:

"Everything seems to suggest that Pend Oreille ore must be smelted in the United States if full advantage is to be taken of the largest and highest market. That brings up the rumor concerning Anaconda Copper Company, a prominent figure in the lead market of the United States through control of its subsidiary, International Smelting Company, with a four-furnace plant at Tooele, Utah. It is a well-known fact that Smelters and Anaconda have worked very closely together in the past ten years, noticeably in perfection of the electrolytic zinc process now in use both at Trail and at Great Falls, Montana, where Anaconda's big zinc works are located. If Trail wishes to obtain and retain an interest in Pend Oreille and still secure the highest return for its investment, nothing more natural than that it should join hands with Anaconda. Such a combination would eliminate possibility of international feeling which might be aroused if Smelters openly invaded the United States and would place the selling agency of metal in the hands of one of the strongest concerns in the world."

"So far as Pend Oreille is concerned, it is anybody's guess at this time. Our guess is that the property will never be taken over openly by Smelters. Pooling of interests with Anaconda would, however, be entirely logical and probably very remunerative, so our guess is that still provided Pend Oreille is what it is said to be, any interest acquired by Smelters will be buried in a company organized in the United States and presumably under direction of Anaconda or other ally of the same kind."

BRIDGE RIVER SEEN AS GREAT MINING FIELD

Vancouver, May 11.—"In the Bridge River area, British Columbia has a free-milling gold production prospect probably not equalled in North America," said R. B. Lamb, chief consulting engineer to the Stobie, Forlong interests of Toronto, who, with Malcolm Stobie and Colonel Victor Spencer, has just returned from a tour of inspection of the district. The party spent a week north of Lillooet, crossing Mission Mountain and going up Bridge River for about fifty miles. Mr. Stobie has arranged for the immediate development of the Lorne claims in the district, for which $250,000 is now available.

The Lorne group is near the famous Pioneer and Coronation mines, with the former of which Col. Spencer is associated and which has been operated with great success for several years. A great new mining camp in the district is visualized by Mr. Stobie and Mr. Lamb. Even the best of the Ontario districts cannot be compared with the gold area of Bridge River, the Eastern discoveries. They contend that it has every advantage for mining, and quartz values that were a revelation, not only as to richness but in their extent.

In extent geographically, the Pioneer-Coronation-Lorne area is about the same as the great Kirkland Lake camp in Ontario, which contains mines valued at over $200,000,000. The Bridge River area is free-milling, whereas the Eastern ore is refractory smelting, and the Eastern visitors expressed the opinion that the Coast proposition would far exceed in value the Eastern discoveries. Veins of rich quartz are traced for three miles, with enough work done to show their richness, and on a similar showing in their ore, six great Ontario mines operate.

Eastern Money Flowing to West

Vancouver, May 11.—"British Columbia's mining opportunities are rapidly being realized by Eastern investors, and we are meeting with splendid co-operation there," said A. E. Jukes, of R. P. Clark & Co., Ltd., who has returned from a tour of the financial centres of Eastern Canada in the interests of Western investors.

"It is now understood that there is a great field for investment in this Province," said Mr. Jukes. "And mining is definitely entering into the field for great investments so long taken up by power, pulp and other vast industrial propositions. The mining industry is here to stay, and will develop into a source of revenue and capital employment far greater than anything now imagined. With the active co-operation of the East the door is opened through which capital will flow to the West, and is flowing now in rapidly increasing streams. It is our duty to place before the Eastern market the British Columbia properties offering the greatest possibilities."

The following information has been summarized by Mr. Ernest Rossiter, president of St. Lawrence Paper Mills Company Limited from his letter dated May 9, 1928, and is subject to the more complete information contained therein:

THE COMPANY—St. Lawrence Paper Mills Company Limited has been organized under the laws of the Dominion of Canada and has acquired the entire business and assets and has assumed all of the liabilities except funded debt, which is being retired, of St. Lawrence Paper Mills Limited; the latter company having been successfully engaged in the manufacture and sale of newsprint since June, 1923.

The plant, located at Three Rivers, Que., consists of a four-machine balance newsprint paper mill of 300 tons daily rated capacity (recently increased from 150 tons) advantageously situated with respect to pulpwood resources, power, water supply, labor and transportation both by water and rail.

The entire output of the mill for 1928 has been sold under contract to 41 publishers located throughout the United States and Canada, and a contract has recently been entered into for the sale of 45,000 tons of newsprint a year for 10 years, beginning in 1930. In order to handle this business, the Company proposes to install two additional newsprint machines with a combined rated capacity of 150 tons, increasing the capacity to 450 tons a day, or about 135,000 tons a year.

The Company believes that sales will justify a further increase of capacity beyond 1930, and in that event it proposes to install two additional newsprint machines, thus further increasing the capacity to 600 tons a day or 180,000 tons a year.

The Company's present pulpwood resources as estimated by Mr. R. O. Sweeney, Forestry Engineer, total approximately 9,000,000 cords, which, with pulpwood contracted for, will be sufficient to last for at least 40 years operating at the full capacity of 180,000 tons a year.

MANAGEMENT—Mr. N. A. Timmins, president of the predecessor company, will be chairman of the board of the new company. Mr. Ernest Rossiter, vice-president and general manager of the old company, will be president of the new company. These gentlemen, together with the other executives who have been responsible for the success of the old company, will continue in the management of the new.

Both Mr. N. A. Timmins and Mr. Ernest Rossiter, who own substantial amounts of the preferred and common stocks of the predecessor company, have invested in the common stock of the EARNINGS—Net earnings of St. Lawrence Paper Mills Limited (predecessor company) after provision for all taxes, have been as follows:

	Before Depreciation	After Depreciation
For the year ended June 30, 1927	$1,025,388	$610,425
For the year ended June 30, 1928 (nine months actual and three months estimated)	1,230,000	750,000

Annual dividend on $9,500,000 new preference shares to be immediately outstanding, $370,000.

The recent increase in the predecessor company's capacity from 150 tons per day to 300 tons was not fully reflected in the earnings until the first three months of 1928.

Based on the sale of the Company's output at current prices for newsprint and on operating costs as estimated by Mr. Hardy S. Ferguson, consulting engineer, the management estimates that net profits after all charges including depreciation and depletion and after deducting all taxes, on the basis of the proposed capitalization of the new company, will be as follows:

	Estimated extra (tons)	Net profit available for dividends	Annual dividend requirement on preferred stock with $14,250,000 outstanding	Annual dividend requirement on preferred stock with $19,000,000 outstanding	Times such dividend earned	Balance per share of common stock
135,000 (6 machines)	$1,837,000	$855,000	$855,000	$1,160,000	2.17	$2.01
180,000 (8 machines)	$2,563,000				2.25	2.54

THE COMPANY: FOREIGN POWER SECURITIES CORPORATION, LIMITED, was incorporated in 1927 under the laws of the Dominion of Canada and was organized primarily to acquire selected securities of electric light and power companies operating in foreign countries. Pending the purchase of such securities the Corporation may employ its funds by investment in other high-grade bonds and stocks of Canadian or foreign origin.

INVESTMENTS: The Corporation has acquired a substantial interest in the securities of the following Companies:

L'ENERGIE INDUSTRIELLE, which has been in successful operation since 1906, generates, distributes and sells electricity in France. Besides its own system it owns or controls and operates ten subsidiaries. The combined system comprises 23 hydro-electric plants, 15 steam plants, 5,000 miles of high-tension transmission and primary distribution lines, and 3,750 miles of secondary distribution lines. Its aggregate hydro-electric resources are capable of developing 122,600 h.p. of which 43,600 h.p. is now installed and in operation. The steam plants develop 44,300 h.p. and in addition a further 44,000 h.p. is purchased, making a total of 131,900 h.p. presently available for distribution throughout the system. In all, over 1,900 communities are served, having a combined population of nearly 2,000,000—the entire system having over 272,000 connected customers on December 31st last.

Consumption of energy has shown consistent increases. Sales in 1924 amounted to 54,000,000 kilowatt hours; in 1925, 65,000,000 kilowatt hours, and in 1927, 130,000,000 kilowatt hours.

SOCIETE HYDRO-ELECTRIQUE DU SUD-EST, a subsidiary of L'Energie Industrielle, owns several water-powers aggregating 59,000 h.p. ultimate capacity. The present development is 12,400 h.p., and an additional unit of 1,200 h.p. is to be added shortly. The most important of the undeveloped powers of the Company are present in the Sarennes, where the ultimate installed capacity will be 44,000 h.p. under a head of 3,283 feet. These powers are being developed or held in reserve to supply the needs of various distributing subsidiaries of the parent Company, particularly in the southeastern part of France.

L'UNION HYDRO-ELECTRIQUE ARMORICAINE is another subsidiary of L'Energie Industrielle which owns an important water-power on the Blavet at Guerledan. It is the only water-power of substantial capacity in Brittany or, in fact, the northern part of France. It is situated almost in the centre of the region of Brittany where the distribution of power is largely controlled by the parent company. The power will be supplied to furnish the requirements of the parent company and its subsidiaries operating in this region. The development is already well under way and the plant is expected to go into operation about December 31st, 1928, with an installed capacity of 20,000 h.p. under a head of 138 feet.

SOCIETE HYDRO-ELECTRIQUE DES BASSES PYRENEES is another subsidiary of L'Energie Industrielle, which operates in the important southwestern part of France, supplying practically all the Department of Landes. This Company is growing rapidly, its net earnings for the first two months of the current year being over 50% in excess of the same period in the previous year.

SOCIETE FRANCAISE AUXILIAIRE POUR L'ELECTRICITE. This French Company was organized by this Corporation for the purpose of dealing in the securities of smaller public utilities in France. It is engaged jointly by L'Energie Industrielle and the Foreign Power Securities Corporation. In its first year's operation, it has earned a satisfactory return upon the investment, and it is anticipated that in the future its operations will result in considerable profit to both the Foreign Power Securities Corporation and its associate, L'Energie Industrielle.

In addition there are included among the Corporation's investments, securities of Force et Lumiere des Pyrenees and Societe d'Electricite et Eau de Madagascar.

EARNINGS AND PROSPECTS: Upon completion of the present financing, it is estimated that net earnings will be at the rate of more than $500,000 per annum or 1.5 times the dividend requirements of $300,000 on this Preferred Stock. Substantial earnings will thus be shown on the Common shares.

PARTICIPATING FEATURE: Whenever the dividend paid to the no par value Common shares in respect of any year exceeds $6.00 per share, the dividend on the Preferred shares in respect of the same year, inclusive of the 6 per cent preferred dividend, shall be at the same rate as the dividend on the no par value Common shares up to, but not exceeding, $7.00 per share. All additional dividends declared in that year shall be paid on the Common shares only.

SHARE WARRANTS: Purchasers of this issue of $2,500,000 6% Cumulative Participating Preferred stock will receive warrants entitling the holder of each share of said Preferred stock to purchase one share of the no par value Common stock at $50.00 per share on or before May 1, 1929; or at $40.00 per share on or before May 1, 1930.

All orders will be received subject to the approval of the proceedings by Counsel and to the issue and sale of the shares as planned. The right is reserved to reject any application and also, in any case, to allot a smaller amount than applied for.

These shares are offered as, if and when issued and received by us, and subject to ratification of the shareholders, prior sale and the conditions stated above.

Price: $100 per share and accrued dividend to yield 6%

Carrying warrants as described above.

Twenty-one West Coast Plants Increase Fish Oil Production

Herring and Pilchard Market Value Jumps 1927 Figures Show

Preliminary Report, However, Shows Decrease in Production Value of All Fisheries of $4,139,205 Over 1926, Chiefly Through Decrease in Salmon Pack

The value of production of the fisheries of British Columbia in 1927 was $23,327,904, a decrease from the preceding year of $4,139,205, or fifteen per cent, according to a preliminary report by the Bureau of Statistics which has reached J. F. Babcock, superintendent of fisheries. The value given represents the value of the fish marketed, whether sold for consumption fresh, or canned, cured or otherwise prepared. The large decrease shown is accounted for chiefly by the decrease in the pack of salmon.

The quantity of canned salmon in 1927 was 1,361,977 cases, valued at $11,666,797, compared with 2,065,190 cases, valued at $16,350,139 in 1926. The total value of the salmon as marketed in the various forms was $14,253,803, compared with $18,769,005 in 1926.

The catch of halibut shows a decrease, while the marketed value decreased from $4,545,720 in 1926 to $3,805,386 in 1927.

SHOW INCREASES

Herring and pilchards show increases in marketed value, the increase in the former being due to the larger quantities of dry-salted herring, and in the latter to the greater quantity of pilchard oil and meal manufactured. The total amount of fresh oil and meal of various kinds (including the products of the whale fishery) was valued at $2,265,636, compared with $1,325,672 in 1916.

The amount of capital invested in the vessels, boats, nets, traps, piers and wharves, etc., engaged in the primary operations of catching and landing the fish in 1927, was $12,265,636, compared with $9,609,209 in 1926 and $6,830,365 in 1925. Increases in number and value are shown in nearly all of the various kinds of boats and gear. The number of unemployed in primary operations was 13,076, an increase of 914 over the previous year.

The capital investment of the fish catching and curing industry was valued at $18,764,253, compared with $22,002,056 in 1926 and $14,844,219 in 1925. The number of establishments in operation in 1927 was 153, compared with 165 in 1926. The number of salmon canneries was seventy-seven in both years, while the number of fish curing establishments decreased from sixty-seven in 1926 to fifty-four in 1927. The number of clam canneries was shown as three in 1926, but in 1927 there were operated in connection with salmon canneries and fish curing establishments and the statistics for clam canneries are therefore not shown separately for 1927. The number of reduction plants in operation was twenty-one, compared with eighteen in 1926. The number of persons employed in the establishments was 8,366, compared with 8,051 in 1926.

ISLAND LUMBER ACTIVITY NOTED

Increased activity at the Great Central Sawmill and the Spruce Lumber Company is reported by H. E. Beasley, general superintendent of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, who has returned from an inspection trip.

Shipments by rail from these mills are larger, Mr. Beasley states, and waterborne consignments from the Alberni Pacific Company are also active.

Optimism is prevalent in the Alberni area for greater activity in industrial lines. Property of the West Coast Lumber Industries has an important bearing on the business conditions of the valley and several new plants are now under construction along the coast.

Stoll-McCracken Expedition Head Crossing Canada

Montreal, May 11.—Optimistic as to their venture into the almost unknown regions of the Siberian Arctic, while not altogether certain as to the experience which lies before them, Charles Stoll, lawyer and sportsman of New York and his wife, Mrs. Merle L. Stoll, left Montreal Wednesday night on the Continental Limited for the Canadian National Railways for Vancouver, on the second leg of their journey, which is to take them into Arctic regions.

Mr. Stoll is the director and backer of the Stoll-McCracken expedition of the American Museum of Natural History, which is now starting on a journey to the Aleutian Islands in search of Mongolian mummies reputed to lie in mysterious caves there.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoll will overtake the schooner Morrisey at one of the Alaskan ports before she leaves for Siberian shores.

VICTORIANS ATTEND TULIP CELEBRATION

Six Hundred Victorians Leave on Princess Adelaide to Take Part in Tulip Festival at Bellingham; Two Local Bands Take Part in Parade; Victoria Firm Presents Tulip Queen With Bouquet

Victoria was well represented at the annual tulip festival held in Bellingham today. Nearly six hundred Victorians made the excursion trip on the Princess Adelaide this morning and two local bands will take part in the parade, the Canadian Scottish City Temple Pipe Band and the Victoria City Temple Pipe Band.

Two local girls, Irene White and Nancy Ferguson, will attend with the pipe band and Miss White will present to the Bellingham tulip queen, Miss Jena Opsat, a bouquet from the Woodward flower shop of this city.

ATTRACTS THOUSANDS

The tulip festival which is an annual institution in Bellingham attracts thousands of people from all the cities of the Pacific Northwest including Bellingham, Victoria, Seattle and Portland. Victoria for some years has taken an active part in the celebrations and always sends a contingent of her citizens to the parade. Bellingham then reciprocates and is generally well represented at the May 24 or Dominion Day celebrations in this city.

The annual tulip festival commemorates the union of the three communities of Whistler, Sehome and Fairhaven, which united some years ago to form the present city of Bellingham. From these three tiny settlements of farming lands has grown a flourishing city with lumber mills, fish canneries, a cement plant and a paper mill, as well as splendid horticultural districts on the outskirts. The queen of the festival this year, Miss Jena Opsat, was chosen from among six competitors and the two competitors ranking next to Miss Opsat will act as her maids of honor. P. J. Snyder was chosen to act as King of the Carnival. The festival is a three-day one having commenced yesterday morning. It will last all day to-day and will culminate in a grand climax to-morrow evening.

THIRTEEN-HOUR TRIP

The Adelaide left Victoria at 8:30 o'clock this morning and will return to the city this evening at 9:30 o'clock. This will give the excursionists a thirteen-hour trip, eight hours of which will be spent on the water and five hours in Bellingham.

Record Year For Sound Ferry Travel Predicted By New Company Manager

Capt. J. Howard Payne of Edmonds-Victoria Ferry Company, Visits City in Connection With New Service; Vessel to Start Operation June 16, Making Two Round Trips Per Day Between Ports

LIEUT. M. A. WOOD WINS PROMOTION

Of interest to many Victorians is the announcement from Ottawa that Lieut. Maurice A. Wood, R.C.N., formerly of Victoria and now taking a special course in England, has been promoted to Lieut-Commander. Lieut. Wood was for several years stationed with the Royal Canadian Navy at Esquimalt. Our promotion is issued from Ottawa by the Department of National Defence at the same time included Lieut. A. C. Wurdie, R.C.N. of Halifax to Lieut-Commander, and Sub-Lieut. A. C. Fraser, R.C.N., of Vancouver to Acting Lieutenant.

On a schedule which will provide two round trips a day between Edmonds, Wash., and Victoria, the ferry Alabama, operated by the Edmonds-Victoria Ferry Company, will go into service June 16, according to Capt. J. Howard Payne, vice-president and manager of the company, who was in the city yesterday in connection with the new ferry.

Capt. Payne looks for one of the greatest tourist seasons in the history of Puget Sound this year.

"At a conservative estimate, there are something like 200,000 people within a sixteen-mile radius of Edmonds who have never been from Vancouver Island. Our ferry will be of great service to these people. We are entering the Sound ferry field with the idea of promoting the tourist traffic to Vancouver Island, and I think we will be successful," said Capt. Payne.

ARRIVES JUNE 12

The ferry Alabama, which has been purchased by the company in Baltimore, is expected to leave that city on May 20, and is due in Seattle on June 12. The vessel has been converted from a coal burner to an oil burner by the Maryland Shipbuilding Company. The steamer has a capacity of 1,500 day passengers and seventy-five automobiles. She contains 137 state-rooms and 265 berths for night travelers.

The tentative schedule for the new ferry will be as follows, Capt. Payne said: Leave Edmonds 8 a.m., arriving Victoria 12 noon; leave Victoria, 1 p.m., arriving Edmonds 5 p.m.; leave Edmonds 6 p.m., arriving Victoria 10 p.m. Leave Victoria at midnight, arriving Edmonds, 6 a.m. Except on the last night trip, the run between the two ports will be made in approximately four hours.

POWERFUL INTERESTS

The Edmonds-Victoria Ferry Company is backed by D. E. Skinner and Henry Seaborn, of the Skinner and Seaborn Corporation; H. F. Alexander, Herbert Fietzacker, of San Francisco, and Capt. Payne. Mr. Seaborn is president of the company, and Capt. Payne the vice-president and manager.

The Alabama is to be ready for the City of Victoria previous to entering the service.

Book of Knowledge

Sketches by Bessey.
Synopsis by Braucher.

THE OYSTER

The rivers of the United States yield many pearls in the shells of mussels, but the finest pearls come from winged shells or true pearl oysters. The most prized pearl actually is the tomb of a parasite which the oyster draws in with its food. The parasite irritates the oyster and causes it to pour forth a fluid called nacre, which surrounds the parasite and hardens.

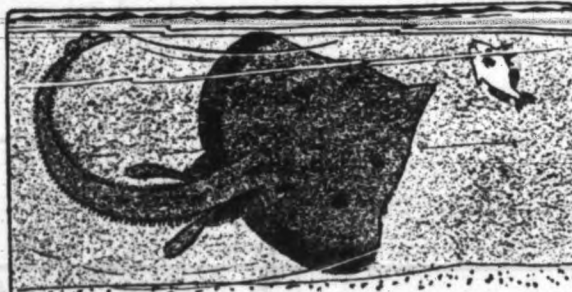

By REK, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1923-26.

The parasite actually is the larva of a tapeworm which attains maturity in the intestines of a great fish called the Indian ray.

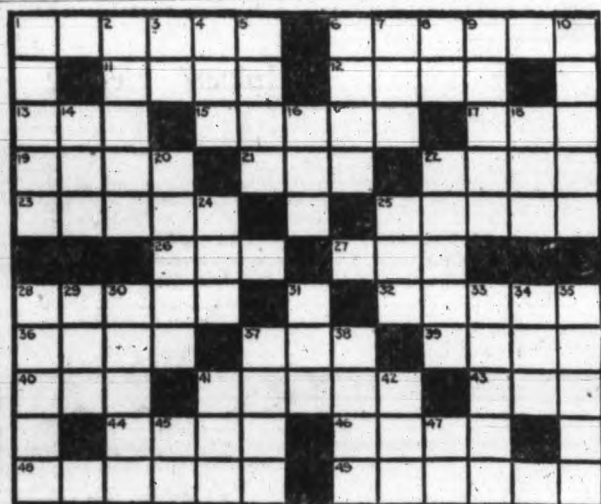

Not all the larvae of the tapeworm are killed by the oyster's nacre. A triggerfish crunches up the oyster for a meal, larvae and all.

The parasite tunnels its way into the stomach of the triggerfish and there lies dormant as a sort of capsule. Finally the triggerfish is eaten by a great sting-ray in which the tapeworm reaches maturity and lays its eggs. These in due course escape to enter another oyster and become pearls or parasites again and the cycle is completed.

To-morrow's Horoscope

SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1928

Again contrary aspects are read as strong in the horoscope of this day, according to astrology.

The early morning is auspicious for financial discussions and transactions. Newspapers and magazines will benefit tremendously in the next few months, when there will be much interest in reading.

Whatever concerns lands should be carefully conducted at this time, when malign influences are discovered by the seers.

Real estate methods are to be severely criticized in many parts of the country, and drastic reforms instituted. It is forecast.

Children born on this day probably will succeed by actual effort. The subjects of this sign usually are gifted, but not lucky in receiving special favors.

Install Duplex Convenience Outlets

DOUBLE Convenience At Each Outlet

We Think of YOUR Needs First!

Every time we install a convenience outlet in a room, we put in a duplex (double) outlet if possible.

This costs only a trifle more, and it just doubles the usefulness of the outlet. You can plug in two or more appliances or lamps instead of only one.

When any electrician estimates on installing convenience outlets for you, be sure that the bid includes duplex outlets where wiring permits. Have the job done right!

Just a Blossoming Tree

(Dedicated to the Girl Pupils of the Victoria School of Expression)

I grow in a garden, with stately oaks
And other giants of our tree folk.
But none of them all would I wish to
I'm thankful to be a blossoming tree.

When morning tints the sky with red
I lift my gaily blossomed head.
And stand on tip-toe just to see
If the sun's gold rays will reach to me.

And then, with dancing skirts outspread,
All dainty white and faintly red,
I sway and swing and pirouette,
Or dance a mincing minuet.

I'll look as prim as prim can be,
With skirts held stiffly out from me.
And turn my head with haughty grace,
With hair piled high above my face.

At other times I wildly dance,
As folks do farther south than France,
I'll toss my head, and swirl and snap,
For formal style care not a rap.

And when at evening rosin sings
With thrilling throat for the day's good things,
I shower the lawn with pink and white,
For fairies who dance in a ring by night.

Why, nothing a godmother fairy might give
Could happier be than the life I live,
For it's oh! such tremendous fun to be
Just what I am—a blossoming tree.

Farewell, Old Six-shooter!

Dorothy Dwan is to Play Leading Lady in "Virgin Queen"

Dorothy Dwan has laid away her trusty six-shooter to play the lady.

Hollywood, Cal., May 11. — From "horse opera" to Queen Elizabeth's court is the step that has been taken by Dorothy Dwan, one of moviola's younger artists. "Horse opera," by the way, is Hollywood's term for a Western film.

For thousands of feet of film, Dorothy rode horses, waved a six-shooter and did everything else that a high-class cowgirl should do. She was Tom Mix's leading lady in five pictures, and Tom likes his leading ladies to leap about.

Dorothy has discarded her sombrero and riding boots for the time being in favor of the fifteenth century gowns of Queen Elizabeth's court. She is playing Sir Walter Raleigh's wife in "The Virgin Queen," a technicolor film depicting a part of Queen Elizabeth's life.

Miss Dwan's mother, who is also her press agent, writes: "Dorothy Dwan has been signed for the leading role in 'The Virgin Queen,' a technicolor film. The blue in Dorothy's soulful eyes will remain and the red gold can no longer be taken from her hand by the merciless camera. Her perfect features will be seen with their matchless coloring in the story of Queen Elizabeth."

The highest compliment that can be paid Dorothy is that she doesn't believe these things that her mother says and writes about her. As a matter of fact, Dorothy is actually quite a human sort of person. She knows that she is attractive, of course—few pretty girls don't. But she keeps that knowledge to herself.

"I want to get away from Westerns," Dorothy told me. "These 'horse opera' are a good place for a girl to get started, but there is no future in them except for the men."

"Then, too, after having played with Tom Mix, I would feel that I was taking a step backward to play with any other Western star. And since Tom is going to the Argentine to make his next few pictures, he's out of the question."

Man (dictating letter): "I absolutely refuse to pay this income tax. I consider you to be an out-and-out scoundrel, blackguard and rogue! You ought to be taken to sea in a sack and thrown overboard. I—I hope you'll die young—that's that!"

Typist (nervously): "Ye—yes—"

Man: "Good—good—leave it—up and burn it. It has eased my mind a bit dictating it!"

AT THE THEATRES

MYSTERY FILM "GORILLA" NOW AT THE VARIETY

Alfred Santell, who directed the spectacular Richard Barthelmess picture, "The Patient Leather Kid," and the megaphone on "The Gorilla," now showing at the Variety Theatre. This is an adaptation of the famous Ralph Spence stage hit which for a year kept Broadway tingling with thrills and laughter.

Director Santell has produced as excellent a movie in "The Gorilla" as he has with "The Patient Leather Kid." Charlie Murray and Fred Kelsey, ace comedians, are seen in the roles of Mulligan and Garity in "The Gorilla." These are the famous detectives who hear all, see all and know nothing.

"The Gorilla," when a stage play, was the melodramatic and comedy hit of New York, but now that it has been made into a motion picture, it has blossomed forth as a sensation.

Bathing Beauty of Old Times is Seen in Picture

Bathing was not an outdoor sport for women during Civil War days. It was an excuse for a costume party. In some of the scenes of Fred Thomson's first Paramount picture, "Jesse James," now showing at the Columbia Theatre, his sweetheart, Zerelda Minerva (Nora Lane) goes in bathing in a river with another girl. The bathing suit gives one an impression that she is headed for church. It consists of a long skirt, with sleeves and a neck, pantaloons with ties at the ankles, a large cape that comes below the knees and ties around the neck, a hat with ribbons under the chin and a parasol.

CHARLOTTE MERRIAM SUPPORTS COLLEEN MOORE IN "SO BIG"

Supporting Colleen Moore is getting to be a habit with Charlotte Merriam, who plays the chum of the First National star in "So Big," an adaptation of Edna Ferber's "Best Seller," at the Playhouse Theatre.

"So Big" marks Charlotte's third appearance with Colleen. She is twenty years old and has spent four years in the regular army.

WALLACE BEERY PLAYS DETECTIVE ROLE AT COLISEUM

Police stars as meal tickets prove very desirable to Wallace Beery, who, as the detective in the new Beery-Hatton comedy melodrama, "Partner in Crime," which is being shown at the Coliseum Theatre, comes in for a large share of food. He says the privileges of a police officer are very desirable while they last but produce a terrible emptiness when they are taken away.

"OLD IRONSIDES" IS A REMARKABLE STORY OF NAVY

When Paramount determined upon the almost superhuman task of filming "Old Ironsides," glorious, romantic and historical tale of the early merchant marine, and the frigate, "Constitution," now playing at the Capitol Theatre, it was with a full knowledge of the tremendous amount of effort and number of hardships that lay before it. From producing "The Covered Wagon," "The Ten Commandments" and other big pictures, it was realized long beforehand the stupendous task that awaited.

This realization, however, acted more as a stimulant than a deterrent. Despite all obstacles, it was determined to make the production the greatest, most vital drama ever flashed upon the screen. Not only that, but it was planned to present to the world the

BLACK IS WOMAN'S BEST COLOR SAYS STAR AT DOMINION

Black costumes for morning, afternoon, sports and evening wear are smart for fifteen years and shall be smart probably for another fifteen, says Bebe Daniels, who appears in "Feel My Pulse" at the Dominion all this week.

There are many women, too many, who believe that black is not becoming, that it deadens their color and makes them look plain. This is a mistake—black is becoming to every complexion, every coloring and a blessing to almost every figure.

"To the sorrow woman who claims that black brings out her defects, I would say, try a bit of white at the neck of a black frock and notice the flattering effect. To the woman who declares that she is colorless in black, I advise the use of a bit more make-up, then watch for effective results."

"SECOND TO NONE," ROMANCE OF NAVY, TO BE SHOWN HERE

The naval film "Second to None," a romance of the Royal Navy, which is coming next week to the Coliseum Theatre, is from a story by the naval writer "Bartimeus," and all the warship scenes, above and below decks are real. They were taken on board H.M.S. Tiger, battle cruiser, H.M.S. Champion, cruiser, H.M.S. Tars and H.M.S. Tacon, destroyers.

One scene was actually taken in the boiler-room of one of the ships, into which the producer, players, cameramen and electricians had to lower themselves through double manholes. Miss Dinah Shore, whose supervision the film was made, was among the people who went down.

The players in the film include Moore Marriott, Mickey Brantford, Grace Vical, Ian Fleming, Daisy Campbell, Aggie Brantford, Benita Hume, Tom Coventry, A. B. Ineson, Johnny Butt and Alf Goddard.

Headaches

Don't "give in" to a headache as something that must be endured. Nbr suffer the pains too many women accept as their "natural lot." Or any pain for which a tablet of Aspirin is always an absolute antidote!

ASPIRIN

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.

WHEAT SEEDING IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Winnipeg, May 11 (Canadian Press). — Wheat seeding is more than ninety per cent completed in Manitoba, with prospects of the operations being completed by the end of this week, according to a progress report on crop conditions issued yesterday by the Manitoba Department of Agriculture.

The soil everywhere in the province is reported as ideal, with sufficient subsoil moisture to carry the seed for some time.

In several sections, particularly in the southern areas, wheat already is showing above ground, while the farmers are reported to be making excellent progress with the seeding of coarse grains.

The report adds: "The Red River Valley without doubt has a real deal larger wheat acreage than in 1927, and with the good progress made with seeding, the next four or five days should show above-ground growth of wheat all over Manitoba."

The oldest tourist resort in the world is Spa in Belgium; it was first extolled by the Roman. Pliny the Elder, in the first century.
